Miss Sue Bradsher Honors Dr. And Mrs. Nichols On Birthday Occasion

A BEAUTY HINT

A gold and red lipstick holder carries the favorite lip rouge of Ruth Hussey, and matches in scent the eau de cologne and perfume the player uses.

dress, and a shoulder corsage of roses.

Mrs. Roxie Slaughter Evans, mother of the groom, wore a brown Aplaca dress with a shoulder corsage of roses.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Slaughter of Roxboro. She is a graduate of Allensville High school. For the past two years she has taught music in the Allensville schools. She is a popular member of the younger set and has a wide circle of friends who will read of her marriage with interest.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Roxie Slaughter Evans and the late Will Slaughter of Oxford, is a graduate of Oak Hill High school. He now holds a responsible position with Fox Dept. Store in Oxford.

Immediately after the rehearsal on Monday night, members of the wedding party were entertained at the bride's home. The living room thrown ensuite and decorated with white flowers. In the dining room, a color motif of green and white effected the bridal theme. The table covered with a white linen cloth, was centered with a lovely arrangement of white roses in a green bowl. On either side of the centerpiece were six green tapers in white holders. At one end was a bride's cake and at the other end a coffee service. Bridal ices, mints and cake were served the guests.

Immediately after the wedding on Tuesday evening, members of the wedding party were entertained at a reception by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Zimmerman at their home in Roxboro. Members of the immediate families and a few close friends were also guests at the reception.

After the reception the bride changed to a dubonnet ribbed crepe dress with black accessories which she wore for going away. Upon their return from unannounced points the couple will be at home on Broad street in Oxford.

Fox - Huff

Mr. Ozie Fox announces the marriage of his daughter, Mildred Lois, to Melvin Clyde Huff of Roxboro, N. C., on September 24, 1938 at Halifax, Va.

POULTRY OUTLOOK

A large hatch and increased market and storage supplies of poultry and eggs were cited by the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics as among the important developments expected in the poultry and egg situation in 1939.

Miss Sue Bradsher entertained at her home on South Main St. Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Nichols at dinner on Saturday morning.

On a cover of delicate green linen, places were laid for seven. The centerpiece of many colored fall flowers, which were most artistically arranged about a reflector, added indescribable beauty to the dinner.

After a most enjoyable dinner a surprise tray was brought in containing a birthday cake, again honoring Dr. and Mrs. Nichols. Immediately a shower of presents were offered and interest grew until each package had been opened. Best wishes from all present for continued "Happy Birthdays" ended their complete surprise.

Others enjoying the dinner with Dr. and Mrs. Nichols included Mrs. Lillian Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Craven, Jr., and Miss Inda Collins.

DOLLY TREE DESIGNS A NEW NEGLIGEE

The richness of satin is utilized to advantage in this negligee designed by Dolly Tree for Ann Morris. The very full sleeves are caught tight at the wrist; the collar is a double roll; the sash ties in a tremendous bow.

Miss Sanders Feted At Birthday Event

With a surprise dinner party Wednesday night, Mrs. H. K. Sanders entertained several members of the younger social set in honor of her daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Sanders, on the occasion of her birthday.

The dining room was elaborately decorated in a color scheme following the fall motif while the centerpiece was of pink roses. Pink candles were also set at each end of the table.

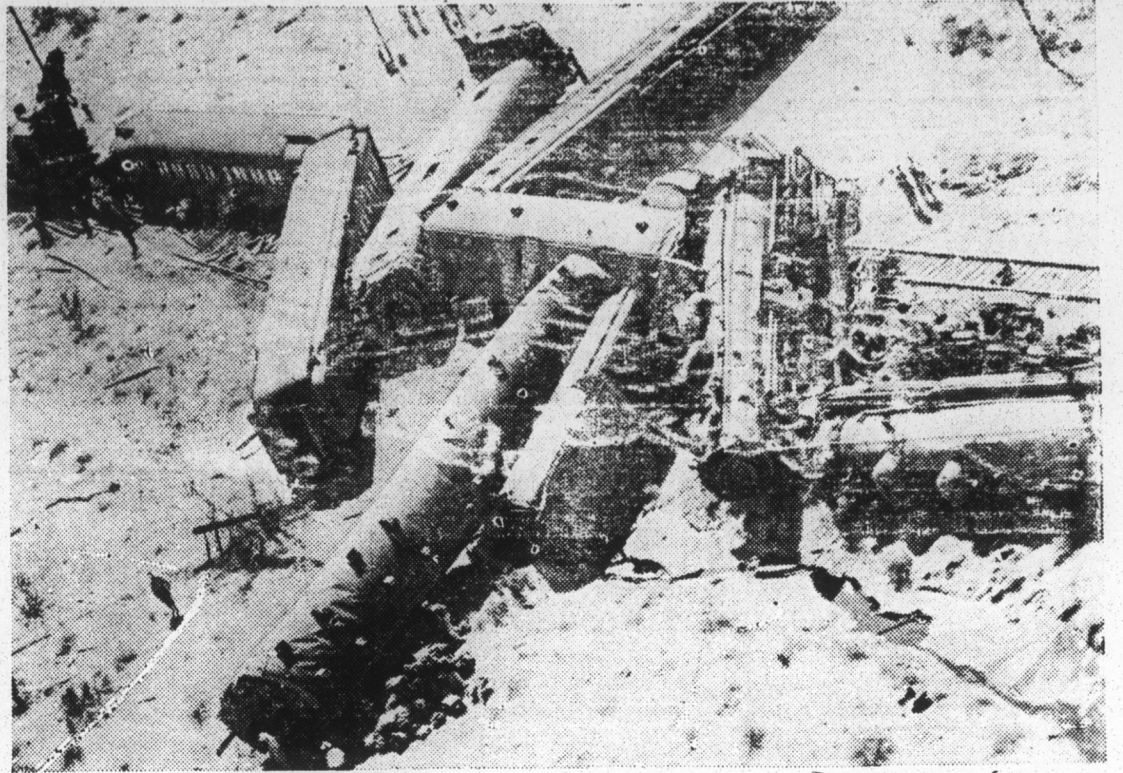

Four courses were served to the honoree, and the following guests: Misses Lisette Allgood, Ernestine Wilkerson, Elnora Raiff, Anne Watkins, Virginia Wilson, Margaret Harkrader and Rebecca Westbrook.

A government controlled company will be formed in the Philippine Islands to assure permanent and sufficient production of abaca, stabilize prices and improve conditions of planters and laborers.

Copies of plans used by a Detroit engineering company are being photographed for storage in small space on motion picture films that can be viewed full size by inserting them in a desk designed for the purpose.

These Were Once Two Crack Trains

Two crack passenger trains crashed head-on in the Imperial Valley Desert, California, killing 12 and injuring scores. This aerial view of the wreck sprawled in ghastly contortion in the desert shows the Argonaut which was en route to Los Angeles. The engine on the right was pulling the Californian.

Circle No. 2 Meets Monday

Missionary Circle No. 2 of Providence church held its monthly meeting on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Edward Young. The meeting was called to order by the president. The roll call and a brief business session were held. Following the business meeting, a very interesting program was given by the program leader, Miss Annie Maude Young. The topic of this program was "Palestine." After the program the meeting was dismissed and the hostess assisted by Miss Pattie Gravitt, served delicious ice cream and cake.

Members present at this meeting were: Misses Pattie Sue Gravitt, Annie Maude Young, and Myrtle Young and Marion Buchanan and Mesdames Ivey Fox, Blanche White, Otha Murray, Durell Tingen, Edward Young, and Harold Hawkins.

Children Honor Mrs. Jane Clayton

On Sunday, Oct. 9, the children of Mrs. Jane Clayton, widely known as "Aunt Jane," gathered at her home and served dinner in honor of her 94th birthday.

The table was bountifully spread under the old Oak that has stood in the yard many years.

There was a large gathering of relatives and friends, estimated at about two hundred. Among those present were Elders E. C. Oakes and W. R. Monk, who spoke beautifully and tenderly of Aunt Jane in her declining years, and the many blessings she has received in sustaining her health and strength. Also present was Professor W. H. Simmons, who entertained with singing.

All seemed to enjoy being together, but time passed rapidly, and thus we had to part with many good-bye's. Each one wishing Aunt Jane many more such birthdays.

Roxboro Girl Birthday Honoree

Miss Effie Wrenn was honored at a surprise birthday party at her home Tuesday night in celebration of her 16th birthday. The affair was given by a friend, Miss Violet Grinstead of Roxboro.

After a number of interesting games were played, refreshments were served to the following:

Misses Minnie Harris, Mildred Grinstead, Bernice Walker, Annie Sue White, Margaret Pixley, Julia Grinstead, Fanny Morris, Claire Gentry, Fanny Huff, Messrs. Chesly Grinstead, Gus Wrenn, Lowell Huff, Arthur Burch, Jiggs Gentry, David Pixley, Arthur Wrenn, Roy Grinstead, Frog Rictetchon, Elbert Clayton, Archie White, Paul and George Harris, the honoree, Miss Effie Wrenn, and the hostess, Miss Violet Grinstead.
