Mrs. S. G. Winstead Delightful Hostess To Study Club Thursday

Mrs. S. G. Winstead was charming hostess to the members of the Study Club Thursday afternoon at Hotel Roxboro.

Members gathered at 3 o'clock and followed an interesting program, a delicious four course dinner was served at 4:30 by the Hotel staff.

Mrs. R. C. Hall presented the only paper of the afternoon, an instructive discourse on "The Modern Woman and Her Problems" in which she contrasted in an interesting manner the woman of today and the woman of pioneer days, and discussed brilliantly women in politics and industry.

A short musical program consisting of "The World is Waiting for the Sunrise," "Londonerry Air," "Indian Love Call," "Perfect Day," "Bells of St. Mary's" and "The Old Refrain" was presented by Mrs. Edgar Masten.

Special guest of the club on this occasion was Miss Bessie Daniel.

Members present in addition to the hostess were: Mesdames R. C. Hall, Lee Umstead, Edgar Masten, Leroy Crib, Thomas Brooks, R. A. Whitfield, E. B. Yancey, R. M. Spencer, R. G. Cole, Page Brooks, T. T. Mitchell, O. B. McBroom, J. B. Snipes and Roger Wilkerson, Jr.

Miss Stanfield Bridge Hostess

Miss Mary Stanfield entertained her bridge club Friday night at Hotel Roxboro.

Places were laid for two tables of contract, the guests gathering at 8 o'clock and playing until 10:30 when a delicious salad course with coffee was served to eight guests.

High score prize was won by Mrs. Riley Oakley while second high and traveling prizes both were awarded to Mrs. Bill Baxter. Miss Ella Gentry was given visitor's prize.

Other present included Mesdames David Carver and Edgar Masten and Misses Frances Wood and Lottie Bailey.

Olive Hill Party Enjoyable Affair

The party sponsored by the Olive Hill Parent-Teacher Association Friday evening proved a success in every way.

A large crowd was attracted, who thoroughly enjoyed the social hour together, and expressed desire for another one soon.

The children were fascinated by the fishing pond and had much fun "fishing". Practically every one present played Bingo and Chinese Checkers over and over trying to win one of the nice prizes offered, the prizes being graciously given by merchants of the community and Roxboro.

These were much appreciated and those donating were: Guy Clayton's store, Flem Long's store, Hambrick, Austin and Thomas, Roxboro Drug, Thomas and Oakley, Hugh Woods, A & P, Aubrey Long, Carl Winstead, Moore's, Sergeant and Clayton, Penders, Roxboro Bakery, Carney's Millinery, Leggett's, Peebles' Long's Flower Shop, Raiff's, Bruce's, Rose's, Whitt's Laundry, Ledbetter's and City Service Station.

FRANKO'S VICTORY COMPLETE

Paris, France — Manuel Azana left for Switzerland, abandoning all hope of further recognition as president of the Spanish republic. This leaves the way open to recognition by the Powers of Generalissimo Franco as responsible head of the Spanish government, and France is already planning to restore to Spain the art treasures and gold now held in France for safety. Swift recognition of Franco is expected on the part of Great Britain.

POLITICAL CZAR CONVICTED

New York City—James J. Hines, once powerful Tammany leader and distributor of New Deal patronage in New York, was convicted on all 13 counts of complicity in protecting local gambling. He faces a penalty of 27 years when he comes up for sentence March 13th. Mayor LaGuardia has demanded the removal of Magistrate Capshaw, named during the trial as being guilty of freeing gamblers brought before him, at the insistence of Hines.

PRESIDENTIAL POT BOILS

Washington, D. C.—District Attorney Dewey of New York City is being hailed by National Republican leaders as first choice for the 1940 presidential nomination because of his masterly work in smashing the Hines ring in New York. Senator Vandenberg of Michigan is a strong second choice, the chief objection raised against Dewey being his youth. A nation-wide survey conducted by the magazine "Fortune" indicates that only a third of the electorate will vote for President Roosevelt if he runs for a third term. This magazine was within 1 per cent correct in its forecast of the President's majority in 1936, and the daughter Marilyn and Louis Morrell spent Saturday in Durham.

Miss Francis Cole of Longhurst Libby Perkins of Leasburg and Mr. Grady Gentry, took Dinner with Miss Millie Clayton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shotwell spent Sunday with relatives, of Roxboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Foy Jones of South Boston, Va., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Epsy Jones.

REFUGEE BILLS UNDER FIRE

New York City—Although he praised the Roosevelt Administration for having admitted 20,000 German and Austrian refugees above the statutory quota of 28,000, and admitted that 5,000 more had entered the country illegally, Representative Emanuel Celler of New York told a meeting here that his bills to throw open the doors to unrestricted immigration would meet certain defeat in Congress because of opposition from Southern and Western members.
