Aberdeen Girl Tar Heel Hostess At World's Fair

Charlotte, N. C.—Out of a list of more than five hundred applicants, Miss Miram Johnson, of Aberdeen, N. C., has been chosen chief of the staff of four girls who will act as hostesses in the North Carolina exhibit at the New York World's Fair this summer. Miss Johnson is the first of a staff of eight, four young men and four young women, who will be on hand to welcome visitors to the North Carolina exhibit this summer, to answer questions and to supply inquisitive Fairgoers with pertinent facts and information about the Tar Heel state. The seven remaining members of the staff will be named by Mr. Coleman Roberts, member of the World's Fair committee in charge of the selections in a few days. The committee chairmaned by W. E. Fenner, Rocky Mount, has been considering applications for months.

Miss Johnson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Talbot Johnson of Aberdeen and is a native North Carolinian. She is well qualified for the position, having served for some time past as personnel director for a large department store in Charlotte. She attended Robert-Beech Preparatory school for Girls in Baltimore and later Randolph Macon College.

In order to thoroughly acquaint the exhibit staff with North Carolina's resorts, recreational facilities and other facts about the state, the eight young people selected will be given a two-weeks training period prior to their departure for New York. The first two days of the training period will be held in Charlotte, where they will be schooled in basic facts about the state. Following this they will be taken on a week's tour of the state, and have their "education" polished off with a two-day stay in Raleigh. Various towns and resorts are now inviting the school to their communities. The group will leave North Carolina April 26 to be on hand for the opening of the Fair April 30.

Two New Gardens To Be Opened Soon For State Tourists

The Wilmington Chamber of Commerce announced today that the two enchanting azalea gardens, Airlie, and Orton, will be opened for visitors on Friday and Saturday, March 31 and April 1. While Orton Plantation is open every day throughout the year, visitors will be permitted to see Airlie only on the two days mentioned. It will be quite easy and convenient for visitors to go to Orton in the morning and Airlie in the afternoon, since the latter estate will be open only from 1:00 p. m. until 6:00 p. m.

The azaleas will be at best at the time mentioned. Persons, who have visited gardens in other States, and have seen Airlie and Orton, near Wilmington, say that the latter place in many respects surpass all in charm and beauty.

There are beautiful driveways throughout Airlie, with vistas through which one views the sound and other alluring scenes.

At Orton Gardens, additional areas have been beautified since last year, and many attractive new features planned for the pleasure of visitors. An outstanding point in connection with this estate is the beautiful Colonial Mansion, the older part of which was built by "King" Roger Moore in 1725.

While at Orton all visitors should visit the ruins of St. Philip's Church, only the four walls of which remain to remind one of the old Colonial town of Brunswick. These ruins are just a half mile south of the Mansion. The two gardens are within easy driving distance from Wilmington. Orton, fronting on the Cape Fear River, in Brunswick County, fifteen miles from Wilmington, is reached by an improved highway. Airlie is eight miles east of Wilmington, near Wrightsville Sound, and is reached by U. S. Highways 74 and 76. Visitors may secure full directions how to reach the gardens from the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce offices. A modest fee is charged for admission to the grounds.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

"Heaven is not reached by a single bound, But we build the ladder by which we rise From the lowly earth to the vaulted skies, And we mount to its summit round by round. We rise by the things that are under our feet— By what we have mastered of good or gain, By the pride deposed and the passion slain And the vanquished ills that we hourly meet."
