SPRING CHARM HAT

THIS spring bonnet, fashioned entirely of white veiling with nested camellias around the edge, is the selection of pretty Maxine Marlow, talented singer in Phil Spitalny's Hour of Charm all-girl orchestra heard Monday nights over NBC at 9 o'clock.

The turban, a Janet-Fifth Avenue creation, is made of ruching and the long streamers can be swirled around the throat or tied in a large bow under the chin, adding the extremely feminine touch so outstanding in spring millinery.

Miss Mary Sievers Woody Delights Audience In Piano Recital Tuesday

On Tuesday evening in the Central school auditorium, Miss Mary Sievers Woody was presented in a piano recital by her teacher, Mrs. W. W. Woods.

Miss Woody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Woody, is a member of this year's graduating class at Roxboro high school. Her numbers delighted the audience and showed marked talent.

The following program was given: "To a Water Lily," Op 51, by McDowell; "To a Wild Rose," Op 51, McDowell and "Witches Dance," Op 17, McDowell.

A violin solo, "Polish Dance," by Scharwenka, by Rev. T. H. Hamilton, was rendered with Mrs. W. W. Woods at the piano.

The next group included "Tarentelle," Op 23, No. 4, by Dennee;

Mrs. Gentry Honors Recent Bride With Party

Mrs. A. C. Gentry delightfully entertained at a kitchen shower in honor of Mrs. Winston Thomas Daves, recent bride, at her home on Reams avenue Thursday evening.

The lower floor of the home was tastefully decorated in spring flowers for the occasion and Chinese checkers was the order of the evening.

At the conclusion of play high score in bridge was awarded to Miss Bonnie Wright with low falling to the honor guest, Mrs. Daves. Miss Inda Collins received high in Chinese checkers and Miss Maude Montague low. Attractive prizes were presented each.

Delicious refreshments of cake, ice cream and chocolates were served to the following: Misses Maude Montague, Inda Collins, Margaret Harkrader, Elizabeth Lancaster, Nell Woods, Lucille Clark, Bonnie Wright, Lucille Woody, Marie Woody, Mesdames E. E. Thomas, George Thomas, Frank Howard, B. G. Clayton and the guest of honor, Mrs. Daves.

Mrs. Crumpton Dinner Hostess

Mrs. Ruth Crumpton entertained a number of friends at a dinner party at her home Friday evening.

The guests gathered for 6:30 dinner and following the delightful three course meal several hours were spent in conversation and reminiscence.

Those present included: Mesdames C. C. Critcher, R. E. Hamlin, George Fox, D. S. Brooks, L. G. Stanfield, Ernestine Wilkerson, Farnk Rogers, J. R. Garrett, R. H. Gates and J. I. Brooks.

New York City—Wreaths and floral tributes placed on the Central Park statue of William Shakespeare reminded hurrying weekend crowds that the Bard of Avon, born 375 years ago last Sunday, is still one of the most widely read writers in the world. Ceremonies were held elsewhere by various Shakesperian societies.

The Bethel Hill Juniors entertained the Senior Class and Faculty with a reception at the school building last Friday evening.

The room was tastefully decorated with white dogwood and red tulips, red and white being the Senior colors. Pres. W. W. Rogers of the Junior class being ill, the vice president, Miss Hattie Woody, gave the toast to the Seniors, and Clyde Sullivan, president of the Senior class gave the response. Miss Carol Leigh Humphries presented each senior with a characteristic gift as a souvenir.

Chinese Checkers was played besides other games and ways of entertainment. Each table was decorated with red tulips. Punch was served during the evening as well as red and white block ice cream, cake and peanuts.

Approximately sixty people enjoyed the reception.

Mr. Claude T. Hall was called to Washington, D. C. on Tuesday to help study the tobacco situation, he returned home Thursday A. M.

The Bethel Hill Home Demonstration club met in the home of Mrs. W. B. Humphries on April 26, 1939 at ten o'clock.

Change of time was due to having a special meeting with Miss Elizabeth Williams, Specialist from State College, Raleigh. She was introduced by Miss Velma Beam.

Miss Williams demonstrated "Slip Covers" for chairs, explaining different qualities of material, designs, color and where and when to use them. Many samples of various materials were shown. A chair was measured to be covered, paper pattern cut, goods placed on chair and pinned to correct position making a perfect fit right before everyone's eyes. Then an already made slip cover was shown with zipper in back to close seam.

As this was a special meeting members from other clubs in county were invited. We were pleased to have members from Olive Hill, Helena and Allensville Clubs. The ladies were asked to bring a picnic lunch as the meeting was from 10 o'clock to 2:30 p. m. There was a bountiful lunch spread on tables and served cafeteria style. Our gracious hostess served hot coffee and iced tea.

Flower plants were exchanged with members and friends. It was voted that our clubs federate and have as many members go to District meeting in Hillsboro on May 17 as possibly can go. Approximately thirty-five ladies came to the meeting and benefited by the demonstrations.

Congratulations To All Graduates . . .

"IT COULDN'T BE DONE"

Taken from one of the famous works of the well known American EDGAR A. GUEST

Somebody said, "It couldn't be done!" But he, with a chuckle, replied, "That maybe it couldn't, but he would be one That wouldn't say so till he'd tried. So he buckled right in with the trace of a grin On his face. If he worried he hid it. He started to sing as he tackled the thing That couldn't be done—and he did it!"

And to the girl graduates we say—"We hope you soon get married and start housekeeping. Then you will be coming here for your groceries.
