Horse-Shoes Are Going Places!—So are we,—this summer—lots of places . . . and we'll need lots of clothes. The new slacks, ensembles, and polo shirts are just the thing for dress-up moments on holiday. But don't forget to be practical too . . . take along a couple of good strong gym suits . . . they're handy for disc (or horse-shoe) throwing, and other strenuous sports.

The In-and-Out Shirt—One of the really bandy garments of the season is the so-called "in-and-outer" sports shirt. The trade calls it the in-an'-outer, because the garment is so designed it can be worn either as coat or shirt. One in-and-outer introduced recently was made of Crown Tested rayon, with two breast pockets, effectively tailored . . . a versatile and good-looking garment.

Take Plenty of Sportswear!—Nothing can spoil a vacation as much as lacking the proper clothes. That's especially true when it comes to sportswear. Here are a few sportswear musts today for the well-dressed man of 1939: Shirts and slacks of matching (or contrasting) fabrics. Adequate stock of miscellaneous sports shirts. Slacks, and shorts. And, of course, beach apparel, including swimsuits and trunks.

Milk Jacket the Latest — A new style among young (and young-minded) men for sports wear is the milk jacket. This innovation looks like the coat of a milkman's outfit. Improved, that is, with a few novelty touches, such as . . . black buttons bearing designs of milk-bottles, and lettered to spell out the word "MILK"; also sketches of cows (not Ferdinand) ornamenting the pockets.

Miss Evelyn Woody Crutchfield Weds Roy C. Garrison Thursday

In a setting of quiet and dignity in the living room of her home, Miss Evelyn Woody Crutchfield of Wooddale, became the bride of Roy Charles Garrison of Helena and Pennington Gap, Va., Thursday, at eleven o'clock in the morning. Reverend N. J. Todd, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The home was decorated beautifully for the occasion and the vows were spoken before an improvised altar of fern, baby's breath, and baskets of cala lillies. Ecclesiastical candles held in antique candelabra of silver shed a soft light in keeping with the dignity of the occasion.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. A. G. Bullard played Schubert's "Serenade." Miss Mary Crutchfield, sister of the bride, sang "At Dawning," "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," and "I Love You Truly."

To the familiar strains of "The Bridal Chorus" from Wagner's "Lohengrin" the couple entered the living room, unattended, and spoke their vows before the improvised altar. During the ceremony "Liebestraum" was played very softly. "The Wedding March" from Mendelssohn's "Midsummer Night's Dream" was used as the recessional.

The bride wore a suit of navy blue sheer with peach accessories. Her corsage was of talisman roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Garrison is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Crutchfield of Wooddale. She is a graduate of Meredith college and for the past several years has been a member of the Helena High School faculty.

Mr. Garrison, principal of Helena High school, is the son Mrs. E. P. Garrison and the late Mr. Garrison of Pennington Gap, Va. He received his A. B. degree from Carson - Newman college, Tennessee, and his M. A. degree from Duke university.

The mother of the bride served a delicious luncheon to the wedding party and to the family and friends present.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrison left for a trip to New York and other Northern points and will be at home in Timberlake, N. C. after August 1.

Nat Dean of Bristol, R. I. is here for a visit with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Long and son, Thomas, Mrs. Ed Howard, Mrs. Joe Kirby and daughters, Sallylou and Jane spent Friday in Nelson, Va. attending the Nelson's reunion.

Club Meeting, Other News Of Bethel Hill

The Bethel Hill Home Demonstration club met in the home of Mrs. Claude Hall on Thursday afternoon.

The president, Mrs. W. B. Humphries presided during the meeting. Mrs. Clyde Woody gave an interesting talk and demonstration on how to finish interior walls. She showed many kinds of finishes for walls, such as washable paper, oil cloth, composition board, wall-tex, Linowall, and Carrara structural glass.

Many kinds of paint for walls and floors, namely: Waterspar enamel, florhide and Wescote's supreme paints for all purposes. When rooms are to be fixed consideration must be given them as to color, design, size and location. Beautiful charts of finished wall were shown to the club.

Mrs. C. T. Hall gave a talk on "Diets to fit the family income." Four suggested diet plans were given. Each of these plans are drawn from 12 groups of food. These groups are: milk and its forms, potatoes, tomatoes and citrus fruits, green and baked foods, cereals, fats, butter, pork, bacon sugar, jams and jellies, honey, syrup and molasses. She urged ladies to can vegetables and especially to can tomato and other fruit juices for winter use, this will save buying citrus fruits when they are expensive. If the income is small or large, give milk for the children, and nutritious foods for the entire family instead of fancy foods and non-nutritious. There were two visitors present.

The meeting adjourned to meet again in the home of Mrs. R. D. Bailey on July 26, at 2:30 o'clock.

Miss Alice Humphries is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. W. E. Bowles of Roxboro.
