Stanfield-Johnston Vows Spoken At Impressive Ceremony Here Friday

Simplicity and beauty marked the wedding of Miss Helen Stanfield of Roxboro and Rufus F. Johnston of Davidson and Winston-Salem Friday morning at 9:00 in the Parlor of Hotel Roxboro. Rev. W. F. West, pastor of the bride, officiated using the impressive ring ceremony. White gladioli in white fern baskets gleamed against a background of greenery, and white candles burned in seven-branch candelabra. Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Wallace Woods, pianist, rendered a program of nuptial music which included "Liebestraum" by Liszt and "Romance" by Sibelius. Mrs. E. G. Long, soloist, sang "Because" by D'Harbelat and the wedding hymn, "O Perfect Love" by Burleigh. Candles were lighted by Mr. Elbert Stanfield, only brother of the bride, and Mr. Ted Johnston of Charlotte, N. C., brother of the groom. Robert Mills left Friday for Lake City, S. C. where he will be during the coming tobacco season. Misses Anna Wooding Winstead and Elizabeth Lancaster have returned from an extended trip to the Virgin Islands. Miss Lancaster is spending the weekend here before returning to her home in New Bern.

To the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" by Wagner, the bride and groom entered unattended. The bride was attired in a navy and white Gracemore ensemble of musoline desvoir. The dress was fashioned with V-neckline and sheered to the waist. Her coat with three-quarter sleeves was full length flaring from the waist. She wore a shoulder corsage of bride's roses, interspersed with valley lillies. "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes" was softly played while the vows were being spoken. For the recessional, Mrs. Woods played the "Wedding March from Midsummer Night's Dream," by Mendelsohn. Mrs. Johnson, eldest daughter of Mr. I. T. Stanfield and the late Mrs. Ella Hamlin Stanfield, is a young lady of unusual charm and accomplishments. She received her B. M. degree at Southern Conservatory of Music in Durham and for the past several years has been connected with the public schools system of North Carolina. She is a popular member of the younger social set of Roxboro. Mr. Johnston is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Johnston of Davidson and received his A. B. degree at Davidson college and M. A. degree at the University of North Carolina. For several years he has been a member of the John Hanes High School faculty in Winston-Salem. All sections of the state will read of his marriage with interest.

Only immediate members of the two families and close friends attended the wedding.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnston of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Autry of Charlotte and Miss Vera Corley of Lexington, S. C.

Immediately after the wedding breakfast, served in the main dining room of Hotel, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston left for New York and other northern points for an extended honeymoon.

Upon their return, they will be at home in Winston-Salem, N. C. Wedding announcements were issued as follows:

Mr. Ira Thomas Stanfield announces the marriage of his daughter, Helen Floyd Mr. Rufus Franklin Johnston on Friday, July 21, 1939. Roxboro, North Carolina. At Home Winston-Salem, N. C.
