

Phone
4501

Local & Society

Phone
4501

PEOPLE YOU KNOW

Everything to Build With
WATKINS & BULLOCK

Mrs. W. A. Hicks, Mr. Graham Hicks, Mrs. Marvin Clayton, all of Roxboro, and Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Whitfield of Prospect Hill have returned home after spending some time with relatives in Dillon, S. C. and White Lake, N. C.

Those deaf people who will return to N. C. School for the Deaf at Morganton, N. C. September 13 are as follows: Drewey Chandler of Timberlake, Robert Smith of Roxboro and Miss Lorese Clayton of Ca-Vel.

Miss Julia Walker has returned to her home in Crew, Va. after visiting her grandmother, Mrs. T. C. Brooks.

Mr. R. L. Harris, Page Harris, R. D. Bumpass, Jimmy Long and Earl Bradsher left today to attend the wedding of W. H. Harris III to Miss Margaret Harkrader which is scheduled to take place late today.

Mesdames C. C. Critcher, F. O. Carver, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Clayton and F. O. Carver, Jr. returned home Sunday following a week's tour in Western North Carolina and Virginia.

Mrs. T. W. Henderson, Mrs. Ruth Stephens, Mrs. B. E. Love, and Miss Anna Catherine Love returned home Sunday after spending several days at Lake Junaluska.

Miss Kattie Gentry of Raleigh spent several days recently at her home in the Allensville community.

Noell Jones has returned home after spending several weeks at Statesboro, Ga. on the tobacco market.

Miss Mary Hester left this week for Kentucky where she will teach in one of the girl schools in that state.

☆ FASHION PREVIEW ☆

SCHOOL clothes for the little girl, chosen for wearability, simplicity, cut and fabric should include the checked gingham princess frock on the left. Its pockets, collar and cuffs are edged with rickrack. The pleated spun-rayon on the right has a demure collar and puffed sleeves. Good Housekeeping for September features these among back-to-school favorites.

John Fontaine Presents Musicale At Bethel Hill Woman's Club Meeting

Mrs. R. L. Hall and Mrs. B. E. Mitchel were joint hostesses to the Bethel Hill Woman's Club meeting.

Miss Cleo Fox has left for Stern where she will be teaching during the coming year.

John Yancey of Bridgeport, Conn. is spending some time here with relatives.

Mrs. J. A. Beam has returned home after spending the summer in Virginia.

Miss Bernice Erwin of New Jersey was a Roxboro visitor last week.

Mrs. Ransome Frederick continues to improve following a serious illness.

Register of Deeds W. T. Kirby is reported as improving at Watt's hospital where he was taken last week for treatment.

cently at the home of Mrs. Hall at Woodsdale.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Clyde Woody. Two very interesting papers were presented by Mrs. J. Y. Humphries and Mrs. Lillian Day. Mrs. Humphries' paper was on "Will Rogers — Letters of a Self-Made Diplomat to His President." and Mrs. Day's paper was "American Humor."

The hostesses assisted by Misses Helen and Louise Hall served most tempting refreshments, after which the members enjoyed a musicale presented by Mr. John Fontaine. Mr. Fontaine until recently made his home in the Bethel Hill community. He is an instructor in music at Atlantic Christian College at Wilson, N. C. The club was delighted to hear Mr. Fontaine play.

Mr. Fontaine played a group of Preludes, Chopin; Waltz in C sharp minor, Chopin; Hungarian Rhapsody No. 12, Liszt; and Stephen Foster's immortal "Mas-

Pre-Nuptial Parties Continue For Miss Stephens

Two pre-nuptial parties honoring Miss Rachel Stephen were given in Durham this week. Miss Stephen's marriage to Paul Forth of Duke University will be solemnized Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock at Concord church.

As a courtesy to Miss Stephens, Misses Agnes Smith and Frances James entertained at a bridge party Monday night at their home in the University apartments.

Guests were invited for 8:30 o'clock. Three tables were arranged for contract in the living room of the apartment, and bridal tallies indicated the places of the players. Cut summer flowers were used for decorations throughout the rooms.

After several hours of bridge, prizes were awarded the winners. Then the hostesses served refreshments consisting of a salad course.

Guests included close friends of the bride-elect.

Mrs. C. R. Skinner and Miss Virginia Skinner extended a pretty courtesy to Miss Stephens Tuesday night when they entertained at a bridge party at their home on Hermitage court.

At the party Tuesday evening the bridal motif was effected in a number of clever ways. Bridal tallies marked the places of the guests, and wedding ices with accompaniments were served for refreshments. A corsage of pastel flowers were presented each guest, and Miss Stephens was given a white corsage and a gift from the two hostesses.

Miss Bunnie Thompson of Creedmoor, whose engagement to Jim Johnston of Raleigh was announced last Sunday, also was remembered with a special gift. A prize was awarded the winner of high score. Late summer flowers in mixed bouquets were used throughout the home, and furnished an attractive setting for the party.

In addition to Miss Stephens, guest of honor, Mrs. Skinner and Miss Skinner invited the following friends to the party: Miss Margaret Ross, Frances Pierson, Frances Crum, Stella Heath, Betty Souders, Frances James, Agnes Smith, Marion Jones, Sarah Fisher and Bunnie Thompson.

Bradsher - Laws Vows Are Spoken In Impressive Ceremony Sunday

In a quiet and impressive ceremony Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock Miss Helen Levine Bradsher became the bride of Willie Umstead Laws at the home of her parents on High School Drive. Rev. W. F. West officiated using the ring ceremony. Only members of the two families and a few intimate friends attended the wedding.

The pre-nuptial music consisted of "Salut d'Amour" by Edward Elgar, and "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes" by Johnson, played by the pianist Miss Mary Riley, followed by a vocal solo "O Promise Me" by Mrs. George Walker. The bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" was used as the processional. During the ceremony "To A Wild Rose" by Edward MacDowell was played softly. The Wedding March from Mendelssohn's "A Midsummer Night's Dream" was rendered for the recessional.

Immediately preceding the pledging of the vows the candles were lighted by two brothers of the bride, John and Edward Bradsher.

The couple entered unattended and spoke their vows before an altar banked with luxuriant ferns, forming a background of rich greenery for pedestrial candelabra holding white cathedral candles. Floor baskets of white gladioli and clematis completed the decorations.

The bride was attired in a becoming dress of viking blue with black accessories. She wore a shoulder corsage of sun glow roses.

Mrs. Laws is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bradsher of this city. She received her education in the city schools and for a number of years has been cashier of the local unit of the Rose Co.

Mr. Laws is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Laws of Rougemont. He is a wholesale produce dealer with his business interest in Durham.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony, taking a boat from Norfolk, Va. to New York and Canada. Upon their return the will make their home in Roxboro.

"To business that we love we rise betime,
And go to 't with delight."
—Shakespeare.

Baptist Circle Meets Monday

Circle No. 2 of the Missionary Society of First Baptist church held its regular monthly meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. H. Clay at Timberlake.

Mrs. F. J. Hester, leader of the circle, was in charge. Mrs. M. T. Clayton gave an inspiring devotional.

At the close of the business meeting Mrs. Clay assisted by Mrs. J. G. Pass served delicious Brunswick stew and coffee. Then the hostess brought in a lovely pound cake with lighted candles as the guests sang "Happy Birthday". This was presented to Mrs. Willie Pettigrew who recently had a birthday and is the oldest member of the circle. Mrs. Pettigrew then cut and served the cake.

There were 13 members present. This was to have been an outdoor meeting but on account of weather, we met in the house.

Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the afternoon.

Bethel Hill

(Continued From Front Page)

improved appearance.

Bethel Hill was allotted one additional teacher this year. This teacher will help relieve the elementary teachers of the heavy load which they have been carrying.

SAVE DRUG ON THESE Specials

Pint RUBBING ALCOHOL 11c	5 lbs. EPSOM SALTS 17c	Full Quart MINERAL OIL 47c
--------------------------------	------------------------------	----------------------------------

50c Jeris Hair Tonic 50c Jeris Shampoo Both for 59c	MODESS 2 for 39c
---	---------------------

25c BLACK DRAUGHT 19c	Welcome Teachers We welcome you back to Roxboro and Person County. Make our store your headquarters. It will be a pleasure to serve you again.	$1.00 CARDUI 79c
-----------------------------	--	-------------------------

60c Drene SHAMPOO 49c	25c Carter's LIVER PILLS 19c
--------------------------	---------------------------------

A Complete Supply of School Needs

5c SCHOOL TABLETS 3 For 10c	Loose Leaf NOTE BOOK 3 for 25c	SCHOOL KITS (Large) $1.29
-----------------------------------	-----------------------------------	-------------------------------

Roxboro Drug Company

"INSTANT SERVICE"
DIAL 3141 WE DELIVER

Phone 3421

Main Street

RAIFF'S DEPARTMENT STORE ROXBORO, N. C.

Dear Teachers:

We welcome you back one and all. We are not offering "An apple for the Teacher" but we do hope you will make our store your home while in town.

Our store has been remodelled which we hope you will like. Our Fall clothes are the prettiest ever and as for our prices—well, we'll let you be the judge over that.

We extend to you a cordial welcome to come in and visit with us at any time and wish for each of you the most successful year ever.

With the greatest of anticipation, we are looking forward to seeing everyone of you in our store.

SINCERELY YOURS,

Raiff's Department Store