Miss Elma Joyner United In Marriage With Drewey Jones

In a wedding marked with quiet simplicity, Miss Elma Joyner was united in marriage to Drewey Jones Saturday morning, September 23, at 9:30 o'clock at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Bradsher.

The bride and groom entered unattended and the Rev. W. F. West heard the marriage vows using the impressive ring ceremony.

Only intimate friends and close relatives of the couple were present.

The home was beautifully decorated with early fall flowers.

The bride wore a costume suit of viking blue, with accessories of blackberry wine. She wore a shoulder corsage of sweetheart roses and valley lilies.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Joyner. She attended East Carolina Teachers' college and for the past three years has been a member of the faculty of Auburn school in Wake county.

Mr. Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jones of Raleigh. He holds a responsible position with the North Carolina Equipment company of Raleigh.

Following a wedding trip to Washington, D. C. and other northern points the couple will be at home in Raleigh, N. C.

Bridge Is Given Honoring Three

Honoring Mrs. J. D. Fitzgerald, a recent bride, and Mesdames W. H. Harris, II and Mrs. Reade Gentry, who were also married only a short time ago, Mrs. Robert Long and Mrs. E. M. Hedgepeth are entertaining at nine tables of bridge Thursday night, September 28, at the Hotel Roxboro.

The individual tables will be attractively decorated with seasonal flowers and favors. Playing begins at 8 o'clock and at the conclusion of the games a salad course and coffee will be served. Several additional guests are to come in for refreshments.

Miss Irwin Weds New Jersey Man In New England

Roxboro friends of Miss Bernice Irwin, formerly a case worker with the Person County Welfare department, will be interested to learn of her marriage to Ervin D. Hanson, Thursday, September 21, at Jackson, New Hampshire.

Miss Irwin, who lived in Roxboro for more than a year, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Irwin, of Bradley Beach, N. J. and since she left Roxboro she has been engaged in social service and welfare work in Monmouth County, N. J. She is an alumna of Duke university and a graduate of the University of North Carolina, at Chapel Hill.

Mr. Hanson has been connected with a telephone company at Asbury Park, N. J., but he and Mrs. Hanson will make their home at 374 Park street, Hackensack, N. J.

While in Roxboro Mrs. Hanson lived with Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Beam on Lamar street. She was quite popular here and made many friends.

Formal announcements were received here last week.

MRS. CLAYTON TO BE HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Everybody wishing to come is invited to bring a lunch box. It's hoped that as many of her relatives and friends that can may have a mind to come.

Armstrong New Kiwanis Governor

9, Ray A. Furr of Rock Hill, S. C. It will noticed that Hal Pittard of Oxford, is the new lieutenant governor for the 5th. district in which Roxboro is included.

Tuesday morning's business session, held at the Sir Walter Hotel, convention headquarters, brought to a close three days of meetings and entertainment. Our 500 civic leaders and their wives from every section of the two states attended.

To the Charleston, S. C., club went the silver cup for convention attendance. The club also was awarded a second cup for sending the largest number of past presidents to the meeting.

The Ahsoskie club, reporting a 100 per cent attendance record at all its meetings for the past year, won a cup without serious competition in this division. Ira C. Ainsley is president of the club.

The Gastonia division was awarded a plaque for division efficiency.

Date for the 1940 convention at Winston-Salem will be determined later.
