

P. T. A. District Conference Dates Are Announced

For the nearly 70,000 North Carolina Parent-Teacher members, October and November are synonymous with District conferences, according to Mrs. Doy-le D. Alley, State P. T. A. president, who has just released a schedule of dates together with the hostess associations for these conferences in all districts. Delegates from practically all of the State's 680 local associations will attend one of these meetings, taking back to their membership information made available through experienced and trained workers. Dates have been so arranged that Mrs. Alley may be present at all ten conferences.

Roxboro members of the Parent-Teacher association will attend their district conference, No. 6, at Jonesboro, where Mrs. L. D. Wall will be director in charge. It is not yet known who the Roxboro representatives will be, but the meeting is scheduled to be held on October 18, said Mrs. R. H. Shelton, president of the local association.

GREEN SPEAKS

Cincinnati — President William Green of the American Federation of Labor called on labor last week to support a new movement sponsored by AFL members, "To expose the false teachings of Communism, Naziism and Fascism."

Keynoting the first meeting of the newly organized League for Human Rights, Freedom and Democracy, Green declared that Stalin's agents and followers occupied "high and influential" places in American government, schools and labor organizations not affiliated with the Federation.

substation commander for the Regular Army, urges all young men between the ages of 18 and 35 years who have been considering enlisting in the Regular Army to call at the recruiting office for information concerning the vacancies that now exist.

For the convenience of out of town callers who wish to apply for enlistment the Durham recruiting office is kept open until 5 o'clock on Saturdays.
