

Baptist Ministers To Deliver Special Sermons Soon

Winston-Salem — Baptist ministers throughout North Carolina will observe October 29 as Hospital Sunday in support of the Enlargement campaign of North Carolina Baptist hospital. Sermons will be preached that day on some phase of the ministry of healing, and the benefit that the state will reap from the creation of a new medical center at Winston-Salem, where Wake Forest College is moving its Medical School, and where it will work with the Baptist hospital.

Hospital Sunday was originally set for October 22, 1939, but because State Mission Sunday of the Baptist denomination in North Carolina falls on that day, Hospital Sunday was moved ahead.

State-wide meeting held in connection with this campaign for $200,000 are attracting hundreds of Baptists. The series of state-wide meetings will end at Leaksville on Monday, October 23.

Every county in the state is represented in the list of patients received at North Carolina Baptist hospital. Demands on it are increasing so fast that about 3,000 patients a year are turned away from its doors for lack of room. The enlargement of the hospital will eliminate this overcrowding and enable the institution to cooperate with the new Medical School of Wake Forest college in turning out doctors and nurses who will be mainly from North Carolina and will usually remain in North Carolina for their careers.

—Webster.

Sarie and Sallie Here Saturday

Edna Earle Wilson and Margaret Walters, who for six years have formed the Sarie and Sallie team of WSM's "Grand Ole Opry" program, originated their act when they entertained for a fox hunt at Pilot Mountain, North Carolina. Sarie and Sallie and their Cabin Creek Band have just returned from Hollywood where they made their screen debut in Gene Autry's latest picture, "In Old Monterey." They will be on the stage at the Palace and Dolly Madison theatres Saturday, October 14th.

Helena Has Had Exhibit In Fair

Helena school was selected as one of the eight schools in the state to put on an educational exhibit at the North Carolina State Fair. The entire school prepared the exhibit, entitled "The Old North State". The exhibit showed industrial agriculture and educational developments in North Carolina. The state was reproduced in miniature form with special emphasis upon the industrial, agricultural and educational features.

Helena had an exhibit at the State fair last year and this exhibit won third prize and brought the school a total of $60.

Memory Of Local Woman Honored By Resolutions

We, the members of Circle No. 4 of the Mary Hambrick Auxiliary, Edgar Long Memorial church, wish to express our sense of loss in the passing of one of our most faithful members, Mrs. T. W. Henderson.

In the first place, she was loyal in every phase of her membership; attendance, support, generosity and good will.

Second, Carrying her burden of years in a most youthful manner, she set us an example of fine courtesy, cheer and optimism.

Third, We, individually, feel that we have lost a personal friend.

We wish to place a copy of this appreciation on the records of the Mary Hambrick Auxiliary, and send a second one for publication to the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

Committee:
Mrs. S. G. Winstead.
Mrs. T. E. Austin.

Bethel Hill Has Two Exhibits At NC State Fair

Bethel Hill high school is the only school in the state which was selected to put on two exhibits at the State Fair in Raleigh, according to an announcement made today.

The agriculture exhibit which is put on by the Agriculture department shows the results of improved practices in farming. A complete, well balanced farm project was worked out.

The elementary department has an exhibit which portrays "A Child's Room." The exhibit shows how a student may invest $2.69 in scrap lumber, cloth, paint, etc. and have a comfortable and attractive place.

The booth has a bed, bookcase, table, pictures, window curtains, clay figures, plaques, etc. which were made by the elementary students.

Scouts Have Regular Meeting

Troop 49 of the Boy Scouts of America had its regular meeting Wednesday night at the Community house. Monroe Singleton of the Buffalo patrol had charge of the program. The meeting was opened by Clyde Whitt.

Afterwards Scout Singleton recited the poem, "It Couldn't Be Done." The roll was called, and then the boys had a game of "Stealing the Bacon." The meet-

Her Brother's Keeper, and Good One!

Charged with being the alleged lookout for two other boys involved in a store robbery, 17-year-old Patrick Lynch of New York was placed in legal custody of his 13-year-old sister, Nora, while awaiting sentence. Two months later Nora delivered such a well-disciplined brother to the court that Pat got a suspended sentence.
