

More Than Two Dozen Cases Come Up In County Court

Over twenty-five cases, most ly concerned with drunken driving, possession for sale, assault and hit and run driving were tried in Person's county court last week, Judge W. I. Newton presided and T. F. Davis was solicitor.

Two defendants, Charles Pierce and Dezbee Cannady, both Negroes, were bound over to Superior court on serious charges of assault, and several others, both Negro and white, were given sentences of twelve months or more on the roads, or let off with stiff fines and suspended sentences.

There were a large number of continuances from previous courts and a few cases on the curret calendar were continued until the November and December terms. Only one woman was tried in the court and only two defendants were found not guilty of the charges brought against them.

Pays Visit To School Library

Dr. W. H. Woody, who was in Roxboro for a few days, visited the Woody Memorial library of the Bethel Hill high school this past week and expressed himself as being well pleased with the growth and appearance of the library. He also said that he planned to extend the shelves in the library to the ceiling and add more books. The present shelves, on three sides of the room, have been practically filled with books which Dr. Woody has donated during the past several years.

Due to Dr. Woody's generosity Bethel Hill high school now has one of the largest and best county school libraries in the state, it is said. In addition to its book collection the library also has subscriptions to the best magazines including Readers Digest, Popular Mechanic, National Geographic, Nature Study, Life, Harpers and Atlantic Monthly.

Chesterfield To Stage Unusual Publicity Series

One of the most interesting and compelling series of newspaper advertisements ever to run in behalf of a leading American cigarette has just been released by Chesterfield. Dealer sales that are sure to result will be assisted by colorful store displays and national billboard showings. The first newspaper advertisement appeared during the week of October 23rd, the start of a schedule that continues through December.

Famous personalities from many fields are featured in the series. The sports world is represented by such figures as Grantland Rice and Frank Fuller, Bendix Air Race Champion. Outstanding Hollywood stars such as Bette Davis, Loretta Young, Errol Flynn, and David Niven play a large part in the Chesterfield campaign, while the glamour and beauty of the American girl is typified by Miss Phil Ofer who was chosen "Cotton Queen of 1939".

However, the most unusual and striking advertisements in this new Chesterfield series are the three all-text announcements that every smoker will be keenly interested in reading. The advertisements are entitled "Toabcco opens doors to fields where people live, work and achieve," "There's no great mystery about cigarette tobaccos," and "It was hit or miss in grandfather's day." Not only are they fine examples of clear writing, original layout and good typography—they also contain new and interesting information about cigarette manufacture. They bear convincing proof that Chesterfield's leading position among America's cigarettes is due to the highest kind of manufacturing standards backed up by the right kind of selling methods. In every way the advertisements in the new series give excellent support to the statemnt "Make your next pack Chesterfields — you can't buy a better cigarette."
