FASHION PREVIEW

GOOD for town; good for country, says the February Harper's Bazaar of the pictured suit. It is a blue and white checked wool coat, nipped in at waist and worn over a plain dark wool dress.

Dr. B. A. Thaxton, Dr. O. G. Davis, Ned Dillard and Frank Whitfield are attending a two-day American Legion Post Officers' conference in Rocky Mount.

A successful benefit bingo party was held Monday evening by the Ca-Vel Parent Teachers association. Refreshments consisted of punch and cakes. About 60 people were present.

City Manager Percy Bloxam left Friday afternoon for his former home in Raleigh, where he will spend the week-end with Mrs. Bloxam.

Many Parties Honor Miss Watkins And Her Fiance, Mr. Pemberton

Parties given in honor of Miss Anne Watkins, popular bride-elect, of this city, whose marriage to Clarence Lilly Pemberton, Yanceyville attorney, will be solemnized in an elaborate high noon ceremony on Saturday, March 16, at Edgar Long Memorial Methodist church, Roxboro, have filled the social calendar here during the past week and a number of events, culminating with the wedding breakfast to be given after the ceremony, have been planned for this week.

First party of this past week was a bridge party given by Mrs. Gordon Brown on Tuesday at her home, with Miss Watkins as an honor guest. Club prize was won by Miss Winnie McWhorter and visitor's prize by Mrs. Frank Ellington, while to Miss Watkins was presented a cake plate and server.

On Thursday afternoon Mesdames Harry Winstead, E. P. Dunlap and Thomas Woody, friends of Miss Watkins' mother, the late Mrs. William Cobb Watkins, entertained at the home of Mrs. Woody. After various games had been enjoyed for some time, Miss Watkins received a miscellaneous shower. Light refreshments were served.

Hostess at a dinner on Friday evening for Miss Watkins and her fiance was Miss Lisette Allgood, who received her guests at her residence at 7 o'clock, those present being Miss Watkins and Mr. Pemberton; Miss Allgood and Thomas Bumpass; Miss Ernestine Wilkerson and Malcolm Warren; E. E. Bradsher, Jr.; Miss Virginia Wilson and Robert Michaels and Miss Mary Elizabeth Sanders and Thoms Hatchett.

On Saturday morning Miss Sanders honored Miss Watkins with a bridge luncheon. Playing began at 10:30 o'clock and was followed by a luncheon served at the noon hour, those present being intimate friends of the hostess and the bride-elect.

Scheduled for the coming week are: a bridge party for Miss Watkins, to be given Thursday afternoon at Hotel Roxboro by Miss Virginia Wilson; a dance Thursday night to be given by Yanceyville friends of Mr. Pemberton and on Friday evening Miss Elnera Raiff will give a dinner for girls of the wedding party.

There will also be a dance after the Friday rehearsal.

On Saturday the Rev. J. F. Herbert, former pastor of the bride, and the Rev. W. C. Martin, the present pastor, will hear the vows' at noon. Immediately after the ceremony, there will be, for members of the wedding party and cut of town guests, a wedding breakfast at Hotel Roxboro.
