Dance On Friday Will Terminate Pre-Nuptial Courtesies For Bride

Filling the Roxboro social calendar for the past two weeks, pre-nuptial courtesies for Miss Anne Watkins, popular resident of this city, whose marriage to Clarence L. Pemberton, Yanceyville attorney, will be solemnized Saturday in a formal highnoon ceremony at Edgar Long Memorial church, this city, will come to a close Friday evening at Hotel Roxboro when Miss Watkins' uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. William Bragaw, of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mann Nelson, of North Wilkesboro, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nelson, of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Yancey, of Salisbury, assisted by Miss Lelia Russell, of this city, will entertain at a dance honoring the bride-elect, her fiance and other members of the wedding party.

First event of this week was a small but delightful dinner party given at the hotel Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Carlton, those present being Miss Watkins and Mr. Pemberton; Mrs. Bragaw, Mrs. Mary Norcott Pemberton, mother of the groom, of Duke university, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rice, of Yanceyville and the host and hostesses. Decorations were green and white.

On Wednesday evening Misses Elizabeth Lancaster and Marjorie Griffin were hostesses at bridge in honor of Miss Watkins, the affair being given at the home of Mrs. Robah F. Baynes, with girls of the wedding party and other intimate friends as guests.

Festivities were resumed on Thursday when Miss Virginia Wilson, one of the bridesmaids, of this city gave an afternoon bridge party at the hotel, with intimate friends of the honoree and members of the wedding party as guests. On Thursday evening Miss Watkins and her fiance and his mother, Mrs. Pemberton and Henry Perry Roberts, of Minneapolis, Minn., Mr. Pemberton's best man, will be dinner guests of Mrs. Howard Foushee, in Durham. Bridge will be played later in the evening, prior to a cocktail party at which Mrs. Foushee will also be hostess, when additional guests call to greet the honor guests.

Friday evening prior to the hotel dinner party at which Miss Elnora Raiff, a bridesmaid, will be hostess, Mrs. William Broadfoot, of New Bern, will be hostess at Hotel Roxboro at a cocktail party for members of the wedding party and out of town guests. Dinner guests of Miss Raiff will include the bride, the bridesmaids, the dame of honor and the maid of honor. Also hostess on the same evening at the hotel will be the groom's mother, Mrs. Pemberton, who will entertain at dinner for her son, the best man, the groomsmen and other members of the wedding party.

Immediately after the dinners of the evening the guests will go to the church for the wedding rehearsal, returning later to the hotel for the dance, which will be enjoyed from ten until two o'clock.

Plans for the wedding ceremony are now complete and many of the out of town guests have already arrived, among them Mrs. William Bragaw, aunt of the bride, of Washington, and Henry Perry Roberts, of Minneapolis, Minn.

The vows will be spoken before the Rev. J. Furman Herbert, of Grace Methodist church, Wilmington, a long-time friend of the bride's family and former pastor of Edgar Long Memorial church, who will be assisted by the present pastor, the Rev. W. C. Martin. Escorting Miss Watkins will be her uncle, Mr. Yancey, who will also give her in marriage.

Mrs. O. Z. Gentry Has Bridge Club

Charming hostess at bridge Tuesday evening was Mrs. O. Z. Gentry, who entertained members of her club at Hotel Roxboro. The game was played at two tables, with tallies and favors suggesting St. Patrick's day. High score for the evening was won by Mrs. J. D. Fitzgerald, while the traveling prize was received by Mrs. Gordon C. Hunter. For refreshments a sweet course was served.

Those playing were Mesdames W. A. Malone, Gordon C. Hunter, B. B. Strum, Robah Baynes, J. D. Fitzgerald, E. M. Hedgepeth, Miss Velma Beam and the hostess.
