

State Parent-Teachers Congress Opens This Week In High Point

Have Many Attractive Speakers On Program. 21st. Annual Meeting To

Raleigh, April 13.—Parent Teachers association with their 70,000 members in this state, have definite drawing power for important speakers. When delegates assemble in High Point this month for their 21st annual convention, they will be greeted and addressed by as important a list of State names as ever seen in print.

Governor Clyde R. Hoey will bring greetings to the banquet session on Thursday evening, of this week. J. H. Rose, state commander of American Legion, will make an address on "The Function of Our Schools in Maintaining our Democratic Institutions". Mr. Rose is superintendent of the Greenville city schools and a member of the Governor's commission on education.

Dr. Frank P. Graham, president of the Greater University of North Carolina, will be the featured speaker at Thursday morning's meeting. He will talk on "Federal Aid to Education" and Dr. Ralph McDonald and Dr. Howard Dawson will lead a forum on the subject. Dr. McDonald is state forum counselor for UNC and Dr. Dawson of Washington, D.C. is director of rural service for the National Education Association. Lloyd Griffin of Raleigh, secretary to the School Text Book Commission will also appear on this forum. Mr. Griffin's topic will be, "The Practical Side of Allocating Federal Funds for Equalizing Educational Opportunities".

R. Wayne Albright, director North Carolina State Employment Service, will address the Thursday afternoon session. A panel discussion will follow, led by S. Marion Justice, state supervisor of Occupational Information and Guidance. H. H. Stacy, president North Carolina School Board Association and Guy B. Phillips, secretary of the Governor's commission on education, will discuss legislation on the same day.

Mrs. W. T. Bost, commissioner of N. C. State Board of Charities and Public Welfare, speaks on Wednesday afternoon the 17th on "Meeting Some Child Welfare Needs". On Friday, Dr. W. D. Perry, secretary Mental Hygiene Society will present "Mental Hygiene for Parents—A Next Step in Education". Dr. Clyde A. Erwin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, will address the assembly and summarize the convention findings at the final meeting that afternoon.

Junius Allison, past president Classroom Teachers Association; Ronald Hocutt, director Safety Division of North Carolina State Highway Department; R. M. Grumman, director Extension Department UNC; Dean J. D. Mesick of Elon College, and Charles Spencer of the Health Division of North Carolina Educational Association, will assist with group conferences throughout the convention.

Miss Grace Van Dyke More of Greensboro chairman of Mothersingers for the PTA will direct the state parent-teacher chorus choir of Mothersingers as a social feature on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Doyle D. Alley of Waynesville, state president of the North Carolina Congress of Parents and Teachers will preside at all sessions. Mrs. Alley will also present the Convention theme, "The Next Steps in Education", on Wednesday afternoon.

IN MEMORIAM

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT FOR W. D. YARBOROUGH

First: That Roxboro Primitive Baptist church has not only lost an active member but a good deacon and a useful citizen and we feel that the church has sustained a great loss.

Second: We know we are going to miss his wise council, the cheerful smile and hearty hand shake and that humble and Christ-like spirit with which he was possessed.

Third: We extend to the bereaved family in this sad hour our heart felt sympathy and hope that God will enable you by his grace to bow in humble submission and feel that the Lord giveth and the Lord taketh and blesseth in the name of the Lord and that he may enable us to try to emulate the beautiful life that was blessed to live.

Fourth: That a copy of these resolutions be recorded on our church records and a copy to the Lion's Landmark and a copy to the county papers for publication. Done by the Order of Conference at the April meeting, 1940.

Elder J. A. Herndon, Mod. F. D. Long, Clark.
