Clemson Has Nine Games

Head Coach Frank Howard announced last week a nine-game schedule for the 1940 edition of Clemson college's football team. Auburn and Wofford replace Navy and George Washington.

The card: September 21, Presbyterian there; 28, Wofford there; October 5, N. C. State at Charlotte; 12, Wake Forest here; 24, South Carolina there; Nov. 2, Tulane there; 9, Auburn there; 16, Southwestern there; 23, Furman there.

Clemson supporters are expecting a good season for 1940 even without McFadden. Their schedule is not as strong as it might be but there are several good games on docket. Tulane, Auburn, State and Wake Forest should furnish strong opposition.

Games Are Coming In

The sports edition of this paper wishes to thank the managers of the various ball teams for reporting games played to this paper. At times it may be impossible to get the games in on time, but they will get into print sooner or later. Keep sending them in and we will print them at one time or another.

Real Baseball

If you want to see a few real baseball games go to Central school at the dinner hour. There are never less than three or four games going on and the boys use a string ball and only have four or five on a side, but they know how to "snag 'em". No umpires are used or needed; they make their own decisions and get by with them. Go up some day at noon.

"Charley-Horse"

For a long time we have wondered where the expression "Charlie Horse" came from. The first explanation to reach this desk was in last Friday's paper. This column is passing it on to you:

"Here's one to tell your neighbors at the ball park during the seventh inning stretch"

"It's the derivation of 'charley-horse,' the severe muscle bruise that has benched many a ball player.

"Dr. Augustus Thorndike, Jr., surgeon for Harvard athletes, declared in the Journal of Bone and Joint Surgery:

"In about 1890, the Sioux City baseball team of the old Western league had an old broken-down horse named Charley. The limp of this horse was quite typical, and often, when a player appeared with a similar limp, someone would say 'he's come Charley'."

"From this expression the term 'Charley-horse' was derived."

Rosemary Lane Once Radio Star

Rosemary Lane, star of "An Angel From Texas," which opens tomorrow at the Palace theatre, found that radio was her springboard to the movies.

Several years ago when the Ford or Old Gold hours brought the dulcet strains of Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians to the air, Rosemary's singing made her's a name to conjure with. To millions of young hearts every where she typified the American college girl. At high school and at Simpson college, Rosemary was just that. She went in for track, tennis, hockey, and soccer. No campus grind, she has always had a grand sense of humor and is a great fun-lover.

When Waring and orchestra trekked to California in 1937 to co-star with Dick Powell in the collegiate musical, "Varsity Show", Warner's looked Rosemary over and liked what they saw. The rest is screen history.

PROFITABLE

C. S. Simmons of Pollocksville, Jones county, has a demonstration poultry flock of 114 hens that returned him a net profit of $43.17 in March, reports Assistant Farm Agent Jack Kelly.

Ninety-three per cent of the vehicles involved in traffic accidents in North Carolina last year were in apparently good mechanical condition.

Clayton Hurls Ramblers To Hard Fought Victory

On Thursday afternoon of this past week Coach George Wirtz's Ramblers downed the undefeated Hilltoppers of Bethel Hill high school in a fast and hard fought baseball game at Bethel Hill.

On this day the high school was staging a Community Day and had the game as a special feature on the program. This was the Hilltopper's eleventh start of the season and they had managed to rack up a perfect score in all previous games.

Buddy Clayton, the Ramblers' star hurler, went the entire route and allowed only seven safeties, while his mates were securing 16 safe blows from the offerings of E. Shotwell and E. Wrenn. Clayton kept all of the Hilltoppers' hits well scattered and no one except Tiny Milam was able to get more than one, he getting two. Hassell Whitfield, for Roxboro, took hitting honors for the afternoon by batting 1.000. He went to the plate five times and secured five safe blows, a triple, double and three singles. Shotwell, for Bethel, also smashed out a triple.

This was the Ramblers' fourth straight win and from such teams as Hillsboro, Henderson, Prospect Hill and the Hilltoppers.

REFLECTIONS

By R. M. SPENCER
PEACE IN OUR TIME

No other living creature is so dependent upon peace as man. The man whose home-life is a castle-of-peace has a clear path toward the goal of success. His mind is not cluttered up with discord; his nervous energy is not dissipated. The man who has found Peace of Mind expands every waking moment in constructive endeavor.

Our National life parallels the life of each of its citizens. The farmer who has fear in his heart, and does not plant seed for a crop, does not have Peace of Mind. The merchant who fears financial disaster, and does not keep his merchandise fresh and salable, shoves faith-in-the-future out the back door and Peace of Mind goes with it. Peace In Our Time will be realized when farmers, merchants, manufacturers and workers have faith in each other. When worry of "What Might Happen" is no longer a spectre on the horizon of time and in its stead we find the cross of Faith, then Nationalism will reach its zenith.

"Peace In Our Time" lies within ourselves. It lies within the sacred precincts of our minds. Only as you and I appreciate its importance can we live in harmony with ourselves and with others. Have faith in your fellowmen for "Peace In Our Time."
