Slaughter Hitting Better

Person county baseball fans are glad to notice that Enos Slaughter is hitting the ball better. Enos fell into a little slump for a few weeks, but he seems to be pulling out of it in nice shape.

Everyone around here is pulling for Enos and we still believe that he will end the season near the .300 mark.

Enos is a good natural hitter and so long as he is feeling good he is bound to get quite a few hits. When he left this county around March he was in good shape and he was figuring on good ball this year

Open Football

The word is going around that Duke will play a wide open football game next fall and it is also being said that Duke will have a real team.

George McAfee will not be in the backfield, but there will be others who know something about carrying a ball and the Duke eleven is preparing for a great year.

Carolina, on the other hand, is getting ready for a good year and can be counted on to show the boys a few tricks.

Then, there's no need to forget Wake Forest. The boys from Wake have a few things in mind and can be counted on.

Stirnweiss Is O. K.

George Stirnweiss is playing good ball for Norfolk. In a double header last Sunday he hit a home run, a triple, a double and two singles in seven times at the bat. He is being rated as one of the best bets to come from N. C. Colleges this year and it looks like all bets on him will be made good.

DECLINE

A decline of $27,000,000 in exports during April, with the heaviest decrease in Scandinavian and Dutch trade, is shown in a late U. S. Commerce department report.

RAPID

New York City received about one carload of fruits and vegetables a minute for the daylight time of every working day of the year, or about 202,000 car loads yearly.

EXTENSION

Immediate extension of the FSCC food stamp plan to include the entire nation as an emergency move has been advocated by a large number of the country's grocers.
