

Local Society

PEOPLE YOU KNOW

Everything to Build With WATKINS & BULLOCK

Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Bradsher have returned to their home here after spending some time in Goldsboro with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bradsher.

Mrs. B. G. Clayton and Miss Grace Osborne Clayton spent Friday and Saturday in Erwin.

Mrs. Frank J. Hester is spending some time at Ridgecrest.

Miss Evelyn Newman is visiting her brother in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Winstead and Gilbert and John Fletcher Wagstaff yesterday attended the wedding of Miss Edith Harris in Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Bass spent several days this past week with friends and relatives on Roanoke and Christianburg, Va.

W. R. Hayes, Jr. and D'Arcy Bradsher are spending the weekend at Virginia Beach, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Harvey and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Brandon are spending this weekend at Myrtle Beach, S. C.

Miss Virginia Lee Ward of Southerlin, Va. is visiting Miss Katherine Spencer.

Miss Caroline Michales will leave tomorrow to attend Croft's secretarial school in Durham.

Basil Riley has returned home from Washington, D. C., where he has been attending school.

Miss Annie Mae McWhorter will leave today to spend a few days with friends in Sanford.

Miss Esther Thaxton, student at Wake Forest summer school, is home for the weekend.

Miss Annie Lee Sims, of Lincolnton, Ga., is the house-guest of her cousin, Miss Ruth Sims.

John A. McWhorter was in Lynchburg on business Wednesday.

GOOD FOOD ALWAYS ROXBORO DINER

Miss Miller To Marry Mr. Forbis In Greensboro

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Miller, of Greensboro, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Beatrice, to Lyndon Vance Forbis.

Miss Miller is a former resident of Roxboro where she attended school for many years. She graduated from Greensboro High school and attended Woman's College of the University of North Carolina.

Mr. Forbis, only son of Mr. and Mrs. William Vance Forbis, is a native of Greensboro. He graduated from Greensboro High school in 1934, and since that time has been connected with the Glascock Stove and Manufacturing company, of that city.

The wedding will take place at St. Andrews Episcopal church, Greensboro, in early October.

WANT ADS

FOR SALE — One metal green and ivory ice refrigerator. Ice capacity 30 pounds, will sell cheap. Mack T. Saunders Tar Heel Chev. Co. 7-14-1tp

Miss Winstead, Mr. Murray United In Home Ceremony

Beautiful in its simplicity and dignity was the late afternoon wedding of Miss Anna Wooding Winstead, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Winstead, of this city, whose marriage to Walter Raymond Murray, was solemnized at five o'clock in the late afternoon on Friday, July 12, at the Winstead residence on North Main street. The vows were spoken before the Rev. W. C. Martin, pastor of Edgar Long Memorial Methodist church, where the bride and her family have membership.

Shortly before the hour for the nuptial rites Mrs. C. Richard Wharton, aunt of the bride, of Greensboro, and a distinguished pianist, softly played Nevin's "Venetian Love Song", from "A Day in Venice", and "Sweethearts and Lovers" from McDowell's "Marionette". Following these selections Mrs. H. Wheeler Newell sang Manna-Zucca's, "Because of You".

At five o'clock as Mrs. Wharton began the "Bridal Song" from Wagner's "Lohengrin", the first to approach the improvised altar in the spacious hallway was the dame of honor, the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Wharton Winstead, of this city, who was her only attendant. Mrs. Winstead descended the stairway and took her place at the altar as the bridegroom and his brother, Lachlan Murray, of Holyoke, Mass., entered from the side doorway.

Following the dame of honor, the bride whose brunette beauty was enhanced by the soft ivory tones of her wedding gown, also descended the stairs with her father, who gave his daughter in marriage. Meeting at the altar, she and the bridegroom gave their responses and then knelt on the white satin pillow at the podium during the prayer, which was followed by the benediction, Lutkin's, "The Lord Bless You and Keep You", sung by Mrs. Newell. During the ceremony Mrs. Wharton played McDowell's "To a Water Lily" and then changed to Mendelssohn's "Mid-Summer Night's Dream" for the recessional.

Adding special significance to the wedding was the fact that Mrs. Wharton, as Miss Lessie Lindsay, of Greensboro, was musician at the wedding of the bride's mother and father, who were married about thirty years ago.

Also in keeping with the wedding of three decades ago was the bride's costume, a duchess satin gown worn by the bride's mother at the time of her marriage to Mr. Winstead. Made in the style of the period, with a full court train, the elaborate dress with short sleeves of real lace, V-shaped neckline, a fitted waist and long, full skirt and a lace-inserted tunic, was worn practically without change by the bride of 1940, who also wore her mother's satin and brocaded slippers and carried a handkerchief of real lace which was carried by her paternal grandmother at her wedding of three-quarters of a century ago.

* FASHION PREVIEW *

WISTFUL charm for summer is accentuated by the coquetry of a gay, checkered parasol to ward off the sun's glare and attract the human stare. Bruyere designed the above frock, featured in the June Harper's Bazaar. of dull black crepe. Costume p and light, summer gloves by A complete the ensemble.

ters of a century ago. Gathered in a coronet of real lace, the bridal veil of illusion draped softly over the back of the dress and covered the long train.

Mrs. Murray's only jeweled ornament was a diamond and pearl sunburst pin also worn by her mother, while her bouquet was composed of orchids, swansonias and gypsophelia.

Adding a note of color was the dame of honor's costume, of pink silk net, with dropped shoulders, a fitted waist line and long billowing skirt, with blue velvet ribbon trimming. Her hat of blue tulle had a pink veil brim and a half-crown of pink flowers. The dame's bouquet was of pink and blue summer flowers tied with delphinium ribbon. Mrs. Winstead, mother of the bride, was dressed in a gown of morning dawn blue and had a corsage of Briarcliff roses, while Mrs. Murray, mother of the bridegroom, was in pink lace, with a corsage of Talisman roses.

Effective floral decorations in green and white were used throughout the lower floor of the home. In the wide front hall where the altar was placed, California tree ferns created a background for large standard baskets of Easter lilies, white gladioli and asters. A tall seven-branched candelabra containing lighted tapers was a central feature. Mrs. Murray, who is a native of this city, where her parents have long been prominent in business and social circles, is a graduate of the Woman's College, University of North Carolina, Greensboro, and has traveled abroad and in this country extensively. During the past few years she has taught in the public schools at Kanapolis and in this city. Mr. Murray, who is a son of Mrs. Jeanie Reid Murray and the late L. McLean Murray, of Holyoke, Mass., attended Tilton Academy, Tilton, New Hampshire and is a graduate of Randolph-Macon college, Ashland, Va. During his residence in Roxboro he was connected with the Carolina Power and Light company and is now with the same company at Southern Pines, where he is sales manager.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Murray were honored with a reception given at the residence by Mrs. Murray's parents, those present including only the wedding guests. Heading the receiving line were Mrs. Winstead and Mrs. Jeanie Murray, followed by the bride and groom, the dame of honor and the best man. At the entrance to the living room was Mrs. P. W. Glidwell, Jr., of Reidsville, and greeting the guests in the music room was Mrs. John Bullock, of this city. Presiding at the punchbowl in the dining room was Miss Elizabeth Lancaster, of New Bern and Roxboro, and assisting with serving were Misses Mary Hester and Esther Thaxton. In the dining room the central decorative note was the bride's table, covered with an Italian cut-work linen cloth brought from Italy by the bride. Flower arrangements were in keeping with the wedding colors and lighted candles brightened the scene and added a festive atmosphere.

Late in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Murray left on an unannounced wedding trip. For traveling Mrs. Murray chose a dress of navy sheer, with a long coat of the same material. Her hat was blue, as were accessories, the dress being relieved only by a touch of white at the throat. Two orchids lifted from her corsage were pinned at the shoulder. After July 20, Mr. and Mrs. Murray will be at home at Southern Pines.

Guests here for the wedding in addition to those previously mentioned included the bride's uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. C. Richard Wharton, of Greensboro, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Wharton, of Dallas, Texas, Mrs. L. A. Wharton and C. A. Wharton of Gibsonville, John D. Wharton and Mrs. Mamie Donald, of Greensboro, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wharton, of St. Thomas, Virgin Islands; also C. Richard Wharton, Jr., Miss Jane Wharton and Mrs. Carrie Lindsay, of Greensboro, and Mr. and Mrs. Reid Tull, of Salisbury, Mr. and Mrs. Goley Yow, of High Point, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Winstead, Mrs. Dora Winstead and Mrs. Tom Winstead, all of Person county and Roxboro; also Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Broom, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Chandler and Miss Sadie Winstead, all of Southern Pines.

Speed in the Water Their Specialty

Five of the speediest mermaids in America wave a greeting from a springboard at Lido Beach, L. I., where they are enjoying the summer swimming season. Each a champion in her field, the girls left to right are: Lorraine Fischer, Harriet Taylor, Mildred O'Donnell, Gloria Colleen and Helen Rains. Collectively the girls hold nine titles.

West Virginia Girl Engaged To Mr. McWhorter

Of interest in North Carolina, Virginia, and Georgia, as well as in the bride-elect's home state, West Virginia, is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Barbara Challingsworth Griffiths, of Huntington, W. Va., only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Riley Griffiths, of that city, to Luther Sanders McWhorter, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. McWhorter, of Roxboro. The wedding will take place on Saturday, September 7, at Trinity Episcopal church, in Huntington, with the rector, the Rev. S. Roger Tyler officiating. The charming young bride-elect is well known in Roxboro, where she has frequently visited, and in Danville, Va., where she was until recently a student at Stratford college. She is a graduate of Huntington high school, is an alumna of Marshall college, and during her two years at Stratford was honored by membership in the Golden Quill in recognition of unusual success in journalism. She is also a member of Delta Psi Omega, dramatics society and was selected as the best all-around member of the incoming Senior class.

Mr. McWhorter, a native of Georgia, attended schools in that state and in Roxboro, where the McWhorters established residence in 1930. He is a graduate of National Business college, Roanoke, Va., and since then has been associated with his father in the McWhorter and Short Lumber company, in Roxboro.

Announcement of the engagement of the popular young couple was made last week at a buffet supper and bridge given by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Griffiths, at their home in Huntington, where fifteen intimate friends of Miss Griffiths were received on the garden-terrace.

Wirtz - Bradsher Wedding Will Be Important Affair

A number of pre-nuptial courtesies have been and are being held to honor Miss Annie Long Bradsher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bradsher, of this city, and a prominent member of the younger social set, whose marriage to George Woodrow Wirtz, of Princeton, Indiana, and Roxboro, will be an outstanding event of the week.

The late afternoon ceremony, at 5:30 o'clock, on Wednesday, July 17, will take place at St. Mary's and Edward's Catholic church, this city, with the Rev. Father Cletus J. Helfrich, of Henderson, officiating.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, Mr. Bradsher, will have as her only attendant, her younger sister, Miss Nancy Bradsher, while best man for Mr. Wirtz will be Glenn Titus, of this city and groomsmen and ushers will be the bride's brothers, Earl Bradsher, Jr., and D'Arcy Bradsher, her brother-in-law, Ben Brown, and Dick Puckett, all of this city. Music will be furnished by Miss Margaret Hannah Critcher, at the organ, and by Mrs. H. Wheeler Newell, soloist, who will sing "Ave Maria" and "Because".

On Tuesday evening before the day of the wedding Miss Bradsher's parents will entertain at dinner at their South Main street residence. Covers will be laid for Miss Bradsher, Mr. Wirtz, other members of the wedding party and out of town guests, while on Monday evening, Mrs. Ben Brown, a sister of the bride-elect, will be hostess at bridge in her honor at the Brown home on High School drive.

Parties of last week included a bridge party at Hotel Roxboro on Saturday evening, when Miss Cleo Fox, of Brooksdale, was hostess. Guests, in addition to the honoree, Miss Bradsher, who received an attractive gift, were

(Continued On Back Page)

DOLLY MADISON
THEATRE
Monday - Tuesday, July 15-16

PASSIONATE LOVE OF PERILOUS DAYS
She belonged to another, but he risked his life to save her from the arms of an unscrupulous lover.

DARK COMMAND
RAOUL WALSH - DIRECTOR
CLAIRE TREVOR JOHN WAYNE
WALTER PIDGEON

DARK COMMAND
Special Morning Show Monday 10:30; Afternoons Daily 3:15-3:45; Evenings daily 7:30 - 9:15; Admission 10-30c.

THERE'S MONEY IN OLD TIRES
Liberal Allowance Will Be Made

BRING IN YOUR OLD TIRES TODAY
U.S. ROYAL DE LUXE
If they're good enough to drive on they're worth real money to us.
Tom's Battery Company
Court Street

POSTER PRINTING
COUNTY FAIR
CARNIVAL
Get attention for your promotion — with colorful posters. We build them inexpensively.
Phone 4501
Person County Times

PALACE THEATRE
ADVANCE PROGRAM
From Monday, July 15 thru Wednesday, July 17
Motion Pictures Are Your Best Entertainment

Monday - Tuesday, July 15-16
Jeanette MacDonald - Nelson Eddy with Mary Boland - Grant Mitchell, in "New Moon"
As Romantic as a New Moon! As thrilling as a Pirate Raid! Glorious sweethearts of "Sweethearts" are sweethearts again in 1940's mightiest musical triumph! Romance sails perilous seas — and men risk their lives to fight for the women they love — as its magic Sigmund Romberg melodies being delight to your heart!
Headliner: "Blue Barron and Orchestra"
Hearst Metrotone News - "News while it is still news".
No Morning Shows; Afternoons Daily 3:15-3:45; Admission 10-30c; Evenings Daily 7:30-9:15; Admission 15-35c.

Wednesday, July 17
The Jones Family with Spring Byington - Ken Howell - George Ernest - June Carlson, in "On Their Own"
You can't keep a good Jones down! Even when they're broke they think it's fun! Ma's running a ramshackle bungalow court to make ends meet — it's running the whole family ragged, but they're having the time of their life!
Charley Chase in "The Awful Goof"
Special Morning Show 10:30; afternoon 3:15-3:45; admission 10-30c; evening 7:30-9:15; admission 15-35c.

Palace Theatre

Monday - Tuesday, July 15-16

Your idols of song reunited in the most exciting of all their hits... ablaze with romantic adventure... bursting with melody!

Jeanette MacDonald

Nelson Eddy

New Moon

MARY BOLAND
GEORGE ZUCCO
H. B. WARNER
GRANT MITCHELL
No Morning Shows; Afternoons Daily 3:15-3:45; Admission 10-30c; Evenings Daily 7:15-9:15; Admission 15-35c.