The meeting was presided over by Mrs. T. T. Mitchell. After the roll call was answered with current events, routine business was discussed.

A humorous amateur program was given by all present, under the director of Mrs. T. C. Brooks. Mrs. Cole then invited the guests into the dining room where she served a delightful salad plate, coffee and plum pudding.

Literary Society Dance Is Given

High Point, Nov. — The Akrothian Literary Society sponsored a dance at the Sheraton Hotel Saturday night, November 9. This was the first off-campus dance for High Point College since school opened in September.

Clarence Leonard and his "Dawn Breakers", popular campus band, furnished music for the affair. This band recently played for a student chapel program and proved immediate favorites with the student body.

The Artemesians, sister society of the Akrothianians, assisted in plans for the dance and were instrumental in making it the success that it was.
