

PEOPLE YOU KNOW

Everything to Build With WATKINS & BULLOCK

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Honeycutt of Fayetteville were guests of Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Martin Sunday.

Miss Lucille Pearce of Durham was in Roxboro with her sister, Mrs. E. G. Long for the weekend.

Miss Ida Winstead of Warren-ton spent the week-end with her parents, Mayor and Mrs. S. G. Winstead.

Miss Martha Boatwright, accompanied by Misses Jane and Anne Richardson of Reidsville, was here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Forth of Durham spent the week-end with Mrs. Forth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Stephens.

Miss Grace Osborne Clayton, student at Greensboro College, was with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Clayton, for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Dickens had as week-end guests, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maynor and son of Richmond, Va. and Miss Margaret Daniel of Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Burke returned from Spencer, where they visited a few days. Mr. Burke's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Burke, came back with them for a week's visit.

Cliff R. Long and Miss Anne Rawlings of Lawrenceville, Va. were Roxboro visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hunt of Fuquay Springs spent the week-end with Mrs. Hunts parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harris.

Mrs. J. H. Hall, Mrs. J. P. Mallette, Jr. and daughter, Louise Hall Mallette, and Miss Louise Pulliam spent the week-end in Richmond, Va., with Mrs. Ruby Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. Bickford Long of Winston-Salem spent Sunday here with Mr. Long's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Long.

Mrs. Clyde Swartz and son, Don, Mrs. W. E. Stewart and daughter, Barbara Jane, spent Friday in Durham.

Ned Thomas of Wake Forest College, was with his mother, Mrs. G. W. Thomas, during the week-end.

Miss Huldah Gentry spent the week-end in Raleigh visiting her sister, Mrs. Paul Latham and Mr. Latham.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Stewart and son, Merial Allen, spent Sunday in Richmond, Va.

A. M. Long returned home Monday after spending a week in McPherson hospital. His friends will be glad to know he is much improved.

Miss Ruth Brooks and Miss Ruby Jane Wells are spending a few days in Western North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hall and daughters, Misses Arline and Bobbie Ann Hall, spent Thanksgiving in Chase City, Va., guests of Mrs. Hall's brother, Charlie Garrett and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Hamlin of Burlington and R. E. Hamlin, Jr. of Kinston, were with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hamlin during Thanksgiving.

Mrs. I. V. Regan of Laurinburg, N. C. visited relatives and friends near Roxboro during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Local & Society

FASHION PREVIEW

SLEEK is the word for this full-length cape of Stroock wool, designed by the Hudson Motor people and turned over to Harper's Bazaar for exhibition at the New York Automobile Show. Credit the Commodore Custom Sedan pictured here, for the cape's inspiration. Harper's for November features a section of automobile creations in dress.

Mrs. S. F. Nicks, Jr. and daughters will leave the latter part of the week for Waycross, Ga. to stay for several weeks. Mrs. Nicks' mother, Mrs. Woodward, who has been with her for some time, will return at the same time.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Slaughter and children, Billy and Mary Elizabeth, and Miss Pauline Allen spent Thanksgiving in Henderson with Mrs. Slaughter's mother, Mrs. W. D. Cothran. Mrs. Cothran returned home with them and is visiting her daughter and family in the Bushy Fork community.

Mrs. H. V. Knight and daughter, Miss Carolyn Knight, and Roger Gardner, all of Suffolk, Va., spent the week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Wilson and family. Mrs. Knight is Mrs. Wilson's mother.

Mrs. E. Lloyd Tilley, her daughter, Miss Miriam Tilley, and her son, E. Lloyd Tilley, Jr., spent Sunday here with Mrs. Eugenia Burton, Mrs. Tilley's mother.

Dr. S. R. Jordan, of Carolina Beach, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. H. Bass.

An All-American Cafe. ROXBORO DINER

Miss Sandidge Is Wed To Mr. Holeman

Announcement has been received here of the marriage of Miss Evelyn Margaret Sandidge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Sandidge, of Sandy Level, to James B. Holeman, of Danville Va., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holeman, of Roxboro, on November 27, at Danville, Va.

The rites were performed by the Rev. Dr. H. P. Myers, pastor of Main Street Methodist church, at the residence of Miss Carrie D. Hawkins, 758 Main street. Mr. and Mrs. Holeman are now at home at Danville, at their residence on Jefferson avenue. Mr. Holeman is well known in Roxboro, where he resided before he went into business at Danville.

Santa Claus Mail Will Be Published

Effective today and continuing through the holidays, as has been the custom for many years, letters to Santa Claus from young readers of the Times will be published in the Times as they are received. Letters should be brief, and should contain both name and address of the writer.

Troop 32 Meets Tuesday Night

Troop 32 had its regular meeting Tuesday evening in the recreation basement of Edgar Long Methodist church. There were 11 members and two visitors present.

The meeting was opened with the pledge of allegiance to the flag followed by a roll-call by the scoutmaster, Earl Bradsher. It was then announced that the troop would be inspected by the local county inspection board. After a few games, the meeting was closed with a song led by Norflect Umstead.

CHURCH BENEFIT

Women of Edgar Long Memorial Methodist church will on Saturday, December 7, sponsor their annual Auxiliary benefit luncheon at the church between the hours of 11 and 2 o'clock. Chicken salad, brunswick stew and other foods will be served. In charge of arrangements is Mrs. Robah F. Baynes, but tickets may be obtained from various members of the auxiliary.

Bethel Hill P.T.A. Meets Tuesday

Bethel Hill Parent Teachers association will meet at the school house December 10 at 7:30 o'clock.

The first on the program will be the inspection of the newly remodeled grammar grade building. The group will then assemble in the Agricultural Building and be entertained with a short Christmas program given by students.

The meeting will be called to order by the president, Mrs. J. Y. Humphries. Mrs. J. H. Merritt will speak briefly on "The Meaning of Christmas." Mrs. Wehrenberg will also speak on "Appropriate Christmas Presents for Children."

Local Market To Observe Holidays

Roxboro Tobacco market will close for Christmas holidays on Tuesday, December 17 and will remain closed until the middle of January, according to announcement made today. It is estimated that more than 3 million pounds of tobacco will have been sold here during the pre-holiday season.

Exact date of the January re-opening has not yet been determined.

BEST

In a recent meeting, community and county AAA committeemen of Forsyth County agreed that the 1941 AAA program is the best yet, says Assistant Farm Agent S. R. Mitchiner.

HIGHEST

As many Martin County farmers report harvesting 25 to 30 bags of peanuts an acre, production appears to be the best in years, says Assistant Farm Agent

Santa Broadcasting

Forman's Department Store WILL BE READY FOR THE BIG CHRISTMAS OPENING ON FRIDAY NIGHT. IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR XMAS MERCHANDISE FOR THE ENTIRE FAMILY WE ASK YOU TO VISIT OUR STORE.

Special Family Prices

FORMAN'S Department Store

FASHION PREVIEW

THIS evening dress of Crown Tested rayon, narrow and black with gold-stripped jacket, draws its inspiration from the polished lines of the Studebaker President Cruiser Sedan, which Harper's Bazaar features in its automobile-dress section in the November issue. It was at the invitation of Harper's that motor men turned for a moment from designing cars to designing dresses.

Person County Tax Supervisors Invited To Hill

Chapel Hill, Dec. 5.—The Person County tax supervisor has been invited by Albert Coates, Director of the Institute of Government, to attend the annual meeting of the North Carolina Tax Supervisors' Association to be held in the Institute of Government building in Chapel Hill December 12-13.

The Association in conjunction with the Institute of Government, has been making a state-wide survey of county practices with respect to penalties charged for late-listing, and the use of tax maps. The results of this survey will be considered at the meeting, together with other problems of immediate practical importance to all tax supervisors. The program will include such vital topics as Tax Exemptions, Tax Mappings, Methods of Listing Real and Personal Property, Methods in the Valuation of Real and Personal Property, The Listing and IT'S EXCITING TO SHOP IN DURHAM The City of Thrift & Savings Durham's complete gift selection makes shopping a pleasure. Come this week.

Valuation of Intangibles and Distribution of Revenue Derived Therefrom, and Miscellaneous Problems presented by tax supervisors.

The tax supervisors will attend three sessions of three hours each, with registration at 2:30 p. m. Thursday at the Institute of Government building. The first session begins at 3 p. m. Thursday, while other sessions are scheduled for 7:30 Thursday evening and 9 Friday morning. The final session will close at noon Friday with a luncheon of all tax supervisors and their guests.

DOUBLED

Herb Gouge of the Little Rock Creek section of Mitchell County says phosphate has doubled his hay and pasture yields during the past three years, reports Farm Agent F. L. Woodard.

Christmas Gifts FOR ALL TOYS KIDDIES ASK FOR! Thomas & Oakley Druggists Walgreen Agency Drug Store For the HOME! Gifts for MEN Exquisite TOILETRIES