Sounds Good To Me.....

A Roxboro golfer has suggested the following way to get money for the greens at the Country Club:

"Have a golf tournament every three months and charge fifty cents entrance fee. The tournament would be for club members or any others who cared to come in. Different kinds of tournaments could be held.

The money derived from each tournament could be used on the greens. For instance the spring tournament could be designated for green no. 2 and 3. The summer tournament for green no. 4 and 5 and so on.

Prizes would be a golf ball or two, nothing that cost any money to speak of.

It was suggested by this golfer that practically all of the club members who played golf would enter the tournament and that profit from each should be about twenty-five or thirty dollars. If you spend fifteen dollars on a green, that green should be in much better shape."

Well, that's the suggestion and we pass it on to the tournament committee for whatever it is worth. Our charge is nothing.

Tournament A Success.....

The big basketball tournament among local high schools is a big success. Good games have been played and good teams have won and lost.

We offer our congratulations to all officials.

Louis Might Serve.....

Joe Louis home from his not-so-arduous ring warfare, said today he was expecting to be called to report for army duty.

"My draft number is 1611," big Joe explained. "This placed me 378th in my local draft board. I returned my questionnaire Jan. 7 and expect to be called any day for a physical examination."

The heavyweight champion said he thought life as a soldier wouldn't be bad, explaining "I've taken orders for years from my trainer, so won't have any trouble taking orders in the army."

Joe would probably make a good soldier and on top of that he should certainly add much to army life. The boys in the regiment could watch him train and then he could get off to defend his title about as often as it was necessary.

It really looks like Uncle Sam is going to get the athletes and you can watch out.

Maynard Signs Up With The Giants

Miami Fla., Feb. 24—The New York Giants roped in three more signed contracts today—those of First Baseman Babe Young, Outfielder Joe Moore and "Buster" Maynard, rookie outfielder—leaving five players unsigned. Of these only Burgess Whitehead hasn't been heard from. Bob Carpenter reached camp Monday and Harry Danning and Joe Oringo have sent word they are their way to talk over things. Jack Brewer got in touch with Manager Bill Terry by telephone. Monday's practice was limited to batting and fielding drills as the players worked out the kinks resulting from Sunday's intra-squad game.
