The Negroes Came Through

Only one white boy—a 15-year-old bantamweight from Buffalo, N. Y.—held a place today on the eight-man all-Eastern Golden Gloves boxing team that will battle the all West team at Chicago, March 26.

Lester McGowan was the only white fighter to come through to a title Wednesday, pounding out a three-round decision over another white lad, Warren Dean of Richmond, Va., to take the 118-pound crown before 14,114 fans.

While the largest percentage of Negro talent in the 15-year history of the New York tourney was winning the seven other medals, Philadelphia captured the team title with 21 points. New York finished second with 18; Buffalo, third with 13; Newark, N. J., fourth with seven, and Washington, fifth with six.

Now it may seem strange or it may seem natural, but any way you figure it the colored boys were in there fighting, and they came through in great style.

Can this little bout be any indication that negroes are paying more attention to boxing than white boys?

It's Time to Go Golfing

Whether you want sand greens or grass greens, the weather, for the past several days has been very nice for golfers and the time has arrived for the amateurs and veterans to get their clubs and see if they can drive across the ditch on the third hole.

We predict a great golf season for Roxboro and believe that this summer will find about fifteen new golfers. Ed Flythe and Tobey Ledbetter have started.

PERSON NEGROES WILL HAVE HOME AGENT IN APRIL

C. J. Ford Advised That Agent Will Come Here From Teaching Position.

According to a letter received by C. J. Ford, Person Negro County Agent from D. F. Lowe, Negro Home Demonstration Agent, Annie Mae Tuck has been appointed Negro Home Agent of Person County. She received her elementary education in the public schools of Person County, and her high school education in Winston Salem. After graduating from high school she entered Winston Salem Teachers College where she graduated with the Bachelor of Science degree in home economics and since graduation has taught Home Economics in Kanapolis, Asheville, and the county training school at Hillsboro, where she is now a member of the faculty of Orange County Training school. According to the announcement 13th, the new Negro home agent has resigned her position as teacher of Vocational Home Economics at Hillsboro to take up her new duties here on April 1st.

All Negro community leaders, Negro women and interested persons are asked to meet at the Rural Center, Saturday, April 5, at 10:00 a. m., at which time the Home Agent will be presented to the group.

Another milestone has been reached in rural Person County. More than 2 years ago a group of Negro farm women met the Person county commissioners and asked them to consider an appropriation along with the state appropriation to place a Negro Home Agent in the county to work with farm women and girls, but the request could not be granted at that time. In 1940 this group along with Rev. G. W. Thomas, John Gates and Eugene Humphrey met the commissioners again making the same request.
