Miss Abbitt And Mr. De Joseph Wed In Washington

United in marriage on Saturday morning, October 11, at 10 o'clock in St. Paul's Cathedral, Washington, D. C., were Miss Dorothy Abbitt, of Washington and Roxboro, and Michael De Joseph, of Washington. Among those present for the ceremony were the bride's father, I. O. Abbitt, and two of her brothers, Willard and Colin Abbitt, all of Roxboro.

Immediately after the vows were spoken Mr. and Mrs. De Joseph left for New York City, but will later be at home in Washington. Mrs. De Joseph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abbitt, of Roxboro, has had residence in Washington for the past year where she has had a government position. Her engagement to Mr. De Joseph was announced several weeks ago.

Mrs. W. Carr Timberlake, of Durham, spent the day Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. R. L. Wilburn.

Miss Jane Umstead, of Greensboro, is spending the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Logan H. Umstead.

Mrs. E. W. Cunningham has gone to Ithaca, N. Y., to spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Teeter, who spent last week here.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Puckett will leave this week for Wauregan, Conn., where they will establish residence. Mr. Puckett was formerly connected with the Times and with the Roxboro Courier. Now in Connecticut are Mrs. Puckett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crossley, formerly of Roxboro.

Miss Merritt To Wed Farmville Man Next Month

Mrs. Robert Connor Merritt, of Greenville, formerly of Roxboro, is today announcing the engagement of her daughter, Mary Jamieson, to Joseph Loyd Horton, of Farmville, the marriage to take place in November. Miss Merritt is well known in Roxboro, where she has frequently visited. She is a granddaughter of Mrs. Mamie Merritt, of this city.

Miss Moorefield Of Yanceyville Weds Mr. Frederick

Of interest to Yanceyville and Roxboro residents was the marriage on Thursday, October 9, of Miss Sallie Womack Moorefield and Richmond S. Frederick, performed at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Moorefield, at Yanceyville by the Rev. P. T. Worrell, of the Baptist church.

The vows were spoken at 10 o'clock in the morning in the living room, which was decorated with floral arrangements of white carnations and fern. The bride, who descended the stairway alone and then entered the living room with the bridegroom, chose for her nuptials a turquoise wool suit with navy accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of gardenias.

Mrs. Frederick, only daughter of the Moorefields, is an alumna of Averette college, Danville, Va. She is also a graduate of Yanceyville high school, and prior to her marriage held a position with the superintendent of Yanceyville schools. Mr. Frederick, youngest son of Mrs. W. W. Frederick and the late Mr. Frederick, of Roxboro, is connected with Collins and Aikman corporation, Ca-Vel. After their return from a wedding trip to Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick will be at home at their residence on Reams avenue, Roxboro.
