Public Sale of VALUABLE LOTS in The City of Roxboro

By virtue of a judgment of the Superior Court of Person County in that civil action entitled The Board of Commissioners of Roxboro vs Marion E. Woods and others, the undersigned commissioners will sell at public sale to the highest bidder for cash at the court house in Roxboro, North Carolina, on at 12:00 o'clock, noon, the following described real property situated in Roxboro, Person County, North Carolina, formerly owned by the late J. W. Brandon, and in part occupied by him as a place of family residence before his death, lying in the angle formed by the intersection of the north side of the Bushy Fork road (old state road No. 144), with the west side of Main Street, and extending at its southwest corner across Lamar street, hence lying partly on the west side of said street. On said land are situated a dwelling house occupied by the late J. W. Brandon, two frame buildings used for mercantile establishments, and two other dwelling houses, one of which is commonly known as the "Mitchell" house.

DECEMBER 1, 1941

The above described property is being sold for delinquent taxes and street assessments, and will be sold in the manner provided by law in such cases. The right is reserved, however, to offer said property at public sale in segments or well defined and described subdivisions.

This October 31, 1941.

F. O. CARVER,
N. LUNSFORD,

Commissioners

WANT THRILLS?

THE U. S. NAVY HAS PLENTY FOR YOU!

Do things seem dull around town for you? Do you feel tied down by your job? Here's your chance to lead the most thrilling life in the world... and get paid for it! A chance to serve your country, too. For Uncle Sam's new two-ocean Navy has ships and planes which are unequalled by those of any other nation in the world. For those who enlist in the Navy there is a wide variety of fascinating work, including everything from aviation to engineering. Pictured here are a few of the thrills that are everyday occurrences in the life of a Navy man. They're open to you right now if you've reached your 17th birthday.

MANNING AN ANTI-AIRCRAFT GUN is real sport—if you know how to handle one. Each man has his station—and a job to do. If he does it correctly, the gun-crew functions as a single man—with deadly accuracy and superhuman speed.

MOSQUITOES THAT TRAVEL AT 45 MILES PER HOUR! It takes a cool head and keen eyes to operate this new bullet-shaped PT Torpedo Boat. You've seen them in the news-reel throwing up great waves of spray on either side. But how would you like to handle one? Your Navy needs men with the stamina to tackle this job! Have you got it?

ON SHORE LEAVE IN A STRANGE PORT: At the tiller of a Navy launch, the coxswain takes bluejackets ashore. If you want to travel... Waikiki, South America, South Seas... the Navy's where you belong!

Tells enlistment requirements. If you are between 17 and 31 (no high school required), get this free booklet now. No obligation. Ask the Navy Editor of this paper. Or telephone him. Or mail him the coupon. You can paste it on a penny postal card.

WEAR THIS BADGE OF HONOR! If after reading the free booklet you decide to apply for a place in the Navy, you will receive this smart lapel-embell. It is a badge of honor you will be proud to wear.

Are you considering joining a military service? WHY NOT CHOOSE THE NAVAL RESERVE!

Don't wait. Choose the Naval Reserve now. The Secretary of the Navy has announced: "All men now enlisting in the Naval Reserve will be retained on active Navy duty throughout the period of the national emergency, but they will be released to inactive duty as soon after the emergency as their services can be spared, regardless of the length of time remaining in their enlistment."

Remember—the regular Navy and Naval Reserve offer you the same travel, training, promotions, pay increases. Physical requirements in the Naval Reserve are more liberal. Find out all about the Naval Reserve. Send in the coupon now!
