

GO TO SUNDAY SCHOOL AND CHURCH SUNDAY

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

(It is suggested that you tear this prayer out and place it at your table to be used as a basis for family devotions each morning of the week.)

O God, our heavenly father, we thank thee for setting us in families and making us know that thou art the father of us all.

Recalled Memories

Oh the moonlight tonight on the old Mediterranean Sea, Brings the sweetest of mem'ries to me.

And as I gaze at the waves, alone with my dreams,

How near those memories seem. Memories that go back to my childhood days,

Of my pals and me at play. And how we grew up, how we drifted apart,

Yet our friendship is still in our hearts.

Memories of the loved ones that are now far away, Where I hope to be again some day.

How happy we shall be together once more, And live again those days of yore.

Oh the moon light tonight on the old Mediterranean Sea, Brings the sweetest of mem'ries to me.

And as I gaze at the waves, alone with my dreams,

How near those memories seem. Memories of those old North Carolina hills,

Of nightbirds singing o'er the hills.

Of those moonlit trails where we would roam,

In the days that you were my won. And the thought that another you have loved and wed, Can't darken those mem'ries, instead,

LARRY M. NELSON.

MAKE ME WORTHY OF THAT MANSION ABOVE

There's a mansion that's waiting in heaven above, A mansion that is meant for me. Built by God's undying, wonderful love, Jesus, make me worthy of that mansion, Make me worthy of God's sweet love.

Answer this cry of a sinner, make me worthy of that mansion above.

On earth there's temptations all along the way, That I've yielded to o're and o'r. Now I want to be ready to enter some day,

I've asked your forgiveness many times for the sins, Committed through weakness and for pleasure.

And I know you forgave me again and again, Prepared for me heavenly treasures.

Now, Father, again in sorrow I come, Asking through Christ's undying love, Forgiveness for those sinful deeds I've done,

47.7 PERCENT OF VISITS TO USES ARE WORLD WAR VETS

116,838 Visits Were Made To Local USES Offices in December, 1945

Indicative of the speed with which the armed forces are being demobilized is the fact that almost half, 47.7 percent, of the visits in which services were rendered in December in local offices of the United States Employment Service, were made by veterans, approximately 99 percent of them of World War II.

Robert M. du Bruyne, acting State director of the USES, reports that 116,838 visits were made to local USES offices in December, about an average month for 1945. Of these visits, additional services were rendered in 109,605 cases, and 52,326 of these cases were those of veterans, a veteran increase from a proportion of about one out of ten in the early months of last year.

This does not mean that 52,000 different veterans visited the local offices in December, for many of them return for further information or help and those drawing servicemen's readjustment allowances visit the offices each week to renew their claims, Mr. du Bruyne explains.

However, this report shows that almost half of the activities of the personnel of local offices are connected with war veterans and their problems, and the proportion will increase as more veterans return home. That is why so much stress is being placed in local offices on handling the problems of returning veterans, Mr. du Bruyne said.
