Way Back In 1934

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Honeycutt spent the last week-end in Charlotte and Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert O Maddox and small daughter, Elizabeth, returned last Saturday to their home near Blue Ridge after spending a week at Gallatin, Tenn., where they were called by the unexpected death of Mr. Maddox's sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Maddox. On their way home, they visited friends at Murfreesboro.

Shop in Asheville
Mrs. Harry B. Wilson, Miss Louise Gaines, Miss Aurelia Howells, and Mrs. Sally Winslow, of the Monte Vista, spent last Saturday in Asheville shopping, returning in time for the very entertaining motion picture starring Will Rogers at the New theatre.

Major and Mrs. Harry B. Wilson will leave next week for Winston-Salem where they will attend the consecration of the Rev. Robert E. Gribbon, bishop-elect of the Diocese of Western North Carolina.

Mr. Edwin Dupuis has taken a position in the Black Mountain post office.

Mrs. Mary C. Ball has returned to her home on the Blue Ridge road after spending the early winter months in Asheville with her granddaughter, Mrs. Charles MacRae, who has recently moved to St. Louis, Mo., where Mr. MacRae has taken a position. Mrs. Ball has with her her daughter, Mrs. Mary Turner, and her grandson, Robert E. Lee Turner.

Go to Chapel Hill
Mr. and Mrs. William G. Boyd and their son, Frederick Boyd, have gone to Chapel Hill after spending summer and fall months at Wayside Cottage, the summer home of Mrs. Boyd's sister, Mrs. Wentworth S. Simmons, of New Bern.

Mr. and Mrs. Quinby M. Kipp and Miss Bronte Jumper returned recently from a trip to South Carolina where they visited in Aiken, Springfield, Charleston and Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor, members of the faculty of the Black Mountain schools, have returned to the Monte Vista from their home in Fairview.

Miss Evelyn McCall, who teaches music in the Black Mountain schools, has returned to the Monte Vista from her home in Marion.

Miss Edna Reinhardt has closed her home, Brier Brook, and with the Misses Barbara and Eleanor Hubbard will spend the remainder of the winter at the Monte Vista. Miss Louise Reinhardt has gone to Lake City, Fla., where she has taken a position at the United States veterans hospital.

Welcome Service
The congregations of the Methodist and Baptist Churches will unite in a service of welcome to the Rev. J. C. Bridges, of Williamston, South Carolina, who will supply the pulpit of the Black Mountain Presbyterian Church during the months of January, February and March. Mr. Bridges and his family have not yet taken up their residence in Black Mountain. This morning at the regular 11 o'clock service at the Presbyterian church.

The Rev. Otto M. Hagler, who has been quite ill, is now spending some time in Charlotte with Mrs. Hagler and their young son, John Blair.

Mr. Fred A. Perley and Mr. Allen P. Perley left Monday afternoon for Williamsport, Pa., where they were called by the death of their mother, Mrs. A. P. Perley, of Williamsport.

Mr. Howard E. Stinchcomb resumed his work this week with the American Thread Company of New York City after spending several weeks at his home, "Gray Gables," in Lakewood, while he was recovering from an operation at the Mission Hospital.

The Wright Brothers Make Successful Flight

Manteo, N. C., May 10.—Wright Brothers made a successful flight today in their air ship. They reached an elevation of 75 feet and made a rapid flight of two miles landing with ease.
