AGAIN AND AGAIN... This gentleman since 1894 appears in Washington on every occasion to voice his opposition to one and all measures before congress. Now he is against loan to Britain. He is "General" Jacob S. Coxey, leader of Coxey's army in 1894. He now wants to protest against the United States loaning any money to anyone in Europe.

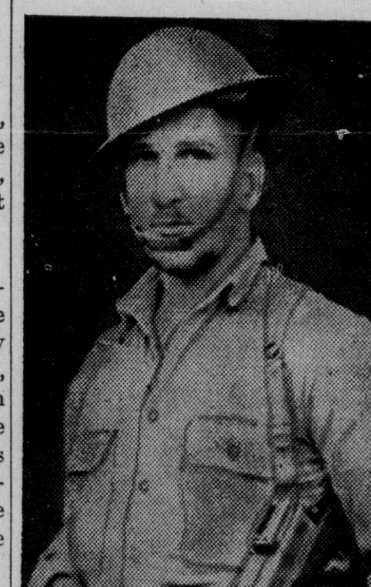

son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Mitchell from Clarksville, Ga., and their little daughter, his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Broadus Mitchell and two small children, and her mother, Mrs. Bergdorf, from New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Deslauriers, of Washington, D. C., where Mr. Deslauriers is employed by the T. W. A., visited their aunt, Miss Annie Webb Thursday. Mrs. Deslauriers will be remembered as Jill Webb, who at one time made her home here. After graduating at Montreat College, she held a position in Asheville for a short while, then returned to her former home in England and joined the Wrens. Mr. Deslauriers whose home is in Rhode Island, went overseas with the American Armed forces. They were married there in the fall and returned to America in December. Jill says that her brother, Tim, is doing fine at Cambridge. Their sister, Ann, still in America, is working for a clinical company in New Orleans, La. These young people are the children of Miss Webb's brother, Dr. Robert Webb, of the Royal Free Hospital in London.

Dr. T. H. Spence made a hurried trip to New York this week in the interest of the Presbyterian Foundation.

The Bible class which has been held at the home of the Misses Rankin each afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, will be resumed on next Wednesday, April 8rd.

Mrs. F. L. Hill of the Montreat office, took a short vacation this past week-end and went with her husband to Wilmington and on down to Charleston, S. C. En route they visited the famous Cypress, Magnolia and Charleston gardens, which were magnificent in their spring beauty.

"ONE-MAN SENATOR"... Maj. Arthur W. Wermuth, the "one-man army of Bataan," has announced that he will seek the Democratic nomination for U. S. senator from Michigan in the next primaries. He will oppose Senator Vandenberg.
