CLEAN-UP WEEK

Clean-up time is here; with us again, and even prizes are being awarded to the winners. The persons showing the most improvement on their own day, however, we discover that business or homes, and even on vacant lots. ECHOES FROM THE MOUNTAINS

H. Grady Hardin.

Jesus once told an arresting tory of a man who cleaned out his house and got rid of a devil that had been bothering him. After his return to the house, however, there were several more devils that had rushed in. What a tragic picture—but how true! No sooner do we rid ourselves of a bad habit than we discover that there are many others to take its place. A town can clean up one bad blot on the community only to find that there are many others to rush in.

The past years have seen a gigantic struggle in our world to rid it of the devil of fascism. The monster was well defeated by the armies of the Allied Nations. Todevils more powerful are rushing in to take its place. The devil of Germany's nationalism may have been swept out of our world. But devils of our own nationalism and menace of the ideas of the "superior peoples." Perhaps the frantic zeal of world mastery has been beaten, only to be re-
