Twenty-four schools throughout Buncombe County entered the Livestock Judging Contest. There were six boys from each school entered. Three of which judged dairy cattle and three judging beef cattle and hogs.

The six judges from the Black Mountain school won second highest place in Buncombe County. The names of the dairy cattle team were Jack Ramsey, Edison Plemmons, and Elmer Taylor.

The three for beef and hogs were Clarence Padgett, Carol Stevens and Joe Hemphill. Clarence Padgett made the highest score in judging of beef and hogs than anyone entered in the contest. His score was 193 1/2 out of a possible 200.

Warren Wilson Defeats Swannanoa Nine, 3-2

By Quentin Enloe
The fast-stepping Warren-Wilson College baseball team defeated Swannanoa high school's varsity last week, 3-2, on the college diamond. Less than 500 college fans watched the fray.

Warren-Wilson, bouncing on Norman Ayers tall right-hander, scored all three markers in the third frame. Lefty Gene Harper marched into the fray during the fourth inning, but went to an early shower with the bases loaded in the fifth.

Swannanoa dented the rubber in the sixth inning. Doe Edmonds opened the frame with a screaming single into centerfield territory. Warren Wilson's Bartemus, huge southpaw slanter, walked Hardin after Edmonds had stole the second sack. Bailey popped up to the shortstop, but Kenny Mills, leading hitter of the day, sent a sharp single to leftfield, Edmonds and Hardin scampering home with the locals' only runs of the day.

The average American family consumes about a pound and a half of spices each year, all of which are imported, says Ships magazine. Of the estimated 50,000 tons, almost one-third is pepper.
