JESUS AND HOME RELATIONSHIPS

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 20:12; Mark 7:9-13; Luke 2:51, 52; Ephesians 6:1-4. MEMORY SELECTION—Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.—Exodus 20:12.

Home—that place so dear to the heart of each one of us—is even more precious in the sight of God.

Right relationship between children and parents have much to do with the peace and prosperity of a community and a nation.

One of the sad breakdowns in modern life is that of proper honor and obedience to parents by children.

The problem of juvenile delinquency, or perhaps we should say more correctly, parental delinquency, is right on our doorsteps now.

I. The Responsibility Stated (Exod. 20:12).

"Honor thy father and thy mother"—how good, and substantial, and right those words sound.

We are told by Paul that this is the "first commandment with promise" (Eph. 6:1-3). The Lord was not making a bargain with man, or seeking to draw out obedience by a prize, but there is obviously a great reward in the observing of this commandment.

Then too as the children of God (if we are such) through Jesus Christ, the first and most important consideration to come before us is, What is the mind and will of the Maker of us all regarding this matter of the relationship between parents and children?

The word "honor" carries with it a great many things, but perhaps the three outstanding elements are respect, obedience and affection.

But men do not wish to follow God's direction, so we see next

II. The Responsibility Evaded (Mark 7:9-13).

Such an important commandment naturally held a high place in the thinking of the community. To violate it involved a measure of shame which men sought to avoid.

The man who did not wish to support his aged and needy parents could entirely evade that God-given responsibility by declaring that his property was "Corban"; that is, dedicated by a vow to God.

Thus do men make "the word of God of none effect" (v. 13) through their traditions. The method differs but the spirit persists even in our day.

Jesus made short work of such trickery and evasion. He declared their man-made creeds and traditions to be simply a means of making the command of God of none effect.

III. The Responsibility Fulfilled (Luke 2:51-52; Eph. 6:1-4).

The manner in which children should be obedient to their parents and honor them in the home is beautifully exemplified in the life of our Lord, living as a boy in Nazareth.

The words of the Holy Spirit through Paul in Ephesians 6:1-4 stress the same truth and enlarge upon it.

This matter of honoring and obeying parents "is right," says Paul. It is the Lord's way, but it is also that which commends itself to every right-thinking person.

There is tremendously important truth on the other side of the picture. Parents are not to provoke their children to anger, to disrespect or disobedience.

May God help us who are parents that we may take to heart this part of our lesson. Our children are our most valuable possession.

Electrical Drying Soft Corn Practical

Ohio Farmer Develops Own Economical System

The problem of drying soft corn is not the difficult chore it once was, according to farmers who have experimented successfully with fan-operated, forced air systems installed in their own cribs.

Heat is not an essential factor in most installations, particularly when drying operations are conducted in the fall or early spring.

Forced air drying is practical and economical without heat in temperatures as low as 50 degrees.

themselves. His 35 by 10-foot, tight-sided crib has a slatted floor, with 1 1/4 by 2-inch slats installed edge-wise and spaced five-eighths of an inch apart.

Mohr's crib vents serve a double purpose. In addition to being exhausts for air, they also serve as openings into which corn is elevated for storage in the crib.

Farm Made Wheelbarrow

Six pieces of scrap pipe, a few lengths of scrap iron, a standard rubber tired wheel, and a few minutes use of arc welder will produce this handy wheelbarrow for the farm.

Short pipe sections fused to the front end of the pipe frame and handle members made ideal bearings for the wheel axle.

Know Your Breed Polled Hereford By W. J. DRYDEN

Since 1902 American cattlemen have developed within the Hereford, a naturally hornless strain—the Polled Hereford.

There are now some 200,000 on the official records. When original hornless bulls are mated with registered horned Hereford cows, about half the resulting calves are hornless.

Vaccinate for Control Of Sleeping Sickness

Horses should be vaccinated in areas where sleeping sickness has been a problem in recent years. It is believed that the virus of the disease is carried over from year to year by birds, and it has also been found that chickens can harbor the virus, according to the American Foundation for Animal Health.

DEW DROPS

When the Bible says a man can't serve two masters, does that mean he can't have two wives? Huh!

Would it not be a good thing to put tailors who cut the modern bathing suits, in charge of the budget?

Man said he knew what a battle ship was, because he married one.

Isn't it better by far to have dependibility than brilliance.

We are too busy "doing things", going to this conference and that meeting, to serve the Lord.

You pray to be saved from drink, you will be if you'll shut your mouth.

We have an over dose of profession and an underdose of possession.
