Students From Swannanoa At Council Meet

Five members of the senior class of Swannanoa High school attended the North Carolina Student Council congress held at Lee H. Edwards High school October 21-23.

More than 200 delegates, representing some thirty-eight North Carolina schools, attended the three-day meet which adjourned yesterday. Barbara and Leatha Martin, Leonard Clayton, Julian Craig, and Quentin Enloe were the attending delegates from Swannanoa.

D. Tiden Ramsey, vice-chairman of the North Carolina Board of Education, was the principle speaker at the opening session on Monday, October 21. His topic was "Democratic Government and its Relation to the Student Council." Mr. Ramsey pointed out in his address that "the leaders of tomorrow are formed in the Student Councils of today."

Following Mr. Ramsey's address, the delegates attended the three panel discussion groups. Group one discussed "Student Councils Promoting Better Relations Between Students and Administration." The second group dealt with various student problems, while the third discussed "Student Councils as a means of Promoting Citizenship."

The Tuesday program followed the same line as the previous day, while a General Assembly ended the three-day program. The Council Constitution was read during the assembly, followed by an election of officers to serve during the 1946-47 term.

Winners, Losers Honored At Dance

A dance sponsored by the senior class of Black Mountain High school was given Friday night at the club house in honor of the football teams from Black Mountain and Swannanoa. Music was furnished by a local string band and by the school's record player.

In charge of the program was Pat Sawyer, chairman, assisted by Jack Brown and Pete Barnwell. Chaperons were Mr. Nesbitt, Miss Gilbert, and Miss Whitesides, of the high school faculty, and Mrs. Callison representing the parents.

Closing Team At Moore General

Here for the purpose of providing assistance in the scheduled closing of Moore General Hospital are the following men from the Seventh Army area: Lt. Col. Sanford Preslar, Major William A. Harvill, Major Edward Krish, Capt. Bartholomew Peterson, Capt. Otto Robinson, and Lt. Howard Erwin.

The men plan to be at Moore General from three to five days to complete their work.

Say You Saw It In The News

Prepare Final Edition Of Moore News

Final edition of the Moore NEWS is being prepared and will soon go to press. Formerly a four-page paper, it will consist of eight pages, and will feature pictures of activities and scenes at the Post. Copies will be distributed to all patients, who will keep them as souvenirs.

Announce P. T. A. Contest Winners

The membership contest conducted by the Parent Teachers—Association of Black Mountain, from September 19 to October 16, netted the club treasury $175 that will be used in the work of the organization. Mrs. Zeb Sawyer, as chairman of the membership committee, directed the contest. A total of 690 new and honorary members were secured.

Mrs. Whitaker's first grade room won the primary grades, and Mrs. Hudgins', fifth grade room was high for the elementary grades. These rooms will be given a Halloween party in their room on the afternoon of October 31.

Sky Troop Vet Visits Here

Morris D. Ray of Barnardsville, former member of the 11th Airborne Division and veteran of 34 months' service in the South Pacific, visited friends and relatives in Black Mountain Wednesday. After joining the sky troops at Fort Benning, Ga., Morris went overseas shortly thereafter and took part in campaigns on New Guinea, and other islands in that area. He took part in the liberation of the Philippines and was wounded on Corregidor. He has recently been released from the hospital at Oteen where he was treated for the recurrence of malaria contracted in New Guinea.

Mr. Ray is a grandson of Dave Atkins of Black Mountain.

—Mrs. Jim Foster was a dinner guest Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parsons and family.
