

Wesleyan Guild Plans Meeting

The Wesleyan Service guild of the Old Fort Methodist church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. C. Macon for their annual Christmas party. Plans were made for the observance of a "white Christmas" in connection with the church school.

For the past month guild members have met regularly on Wednesday evening at the church to study together "The Fine Art of Using" by Ralph W. Sockman. The course was completed last evening. Mrs. T. R. Kanipe led the discussion.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Allison and daughter Elaine have recently moved to their new home on Church street.

Attend Candler Lions Meet

W. W. White, Charles Spencer, A. W. McDougale, J. O. Williams, and H. W. Sanders were in Candler, N. C., last Friday night to attend the charter night banquet of the new Candler Lions club. The new group was sponsored by the Asheville Lions club and several from there and surrounding communities were among the 250 that attended.

D. R. Mauney, district governor, presented the charter to the new club. Jimmy Daniels, international director from Greenville, S. C., was the principal speaker.

ORPHANAGE TO BEGIN BASKETBALL PRACTICE

The boys at the Mountain Orphanage will begin basketball practice soon in preparation for the coming season. At present there are 12 boys who have indicated that they are interested in the cage game and it is hoped that a strong combination will be found in time for the opening game.

WILLIAMS' GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Williams recently visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Williams.

—Mr. and Mrs. James S. Street, and son Tommy, visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Turner in Ridgecrest Sunday afternoon.

Orphanage Team Loses Hard Battle

The Mountain Orphanage grid-ers, playing their first game of the season, lost to an Asheville team Saturday, 25-7. The game was played on the Swannanoa High school field.

The winners scored in every period while the Orphanage lads pushed over their tally in the third quarter, the scoring play being a five-yard plunge by Ray White. The losers lost another touchdown when the receiver raced out of the end zone in receiving a pass.

Outstanding was the passing of Ray White and the smooth defensive work of the entire forward wall.

The following boys saw action for the Orphanage: Billy Cooper, Robert White, Ronnie Murphy, Harold McDonald, David Freeman, Clifford Smathers, Joe Ingle, Dean Nichols, Roger White, Joe Holt, and Clyde Reece.

Score by quarters:

	1	2	3	F
Orphanage	0	0	7	7
Asheville	7	13	19	25

Second Cookbook Edition Appears

RALEIGH, Dec. 11—The second edition of "Favorite Recipes of North Carolina," 128-page cookbook containing 340 recipes, is ready for general distribution, it is announced by Agriculture Commissioner W. Kerr Scott.

Sponsored by the state department of agriculture and the N. C. Dairy products association, "Favorite Recipes" has been purchased by approximately 30,000 dairies and housewives throughout the nation.

The cookbook contains 16 pages presenting foods in their natural colors, 28 black-and-white photographs, and a special four-page index on the various types of cheeses.

In North Carolina, the price is forty cents; out-of-state, fifty cents.

Miss York Kiker, home economist and dairy marketing specialist with the department, selected recipes for the book, consulting hundreds of North Carolina women regarding favorite southern dishes.

A total of 20,000 copies were published in this second edition, Scott said, bringing the total in the two editions to 40,000.
