JOIN THE MARCH OF DIMES

THE BLACK MOUNTAIN NEWS

YES, WE DO JOB PRINTING

5 Cents Per Copy.

ol. 2. No. 22.

Founder's Day

elebrated At

t. Orphanage

of Historical Foundation at reat gave the principal ad-when Founder's Day was rved January 20 at the Moun-

Orphanage. His subject was:

e is Your Opportunity, What

D. Bedinger, chairman of Home of the Rev. R. P. Smith, Miss

te briefly of his association

Dr. Smith, and the Rev.

lter H. Styles, pastor of the

The Mountain Orphanage as it

nown today, had its beginning

Appalachian Mountains with n cottage in Haywood county.

was January 19, 1904. In the home was moved to Bal-in Henderson county, and in to its present location, two west of Black Mountain on ildren at the Mountain Or-age attend the Swannanoa

l and the Presbyterian church ated for the needy boys and er the direction of the Rev. D.

iren at the home combine work

p of the staff members.

Black Mountain.

kitchen matron.

a nurse on Guam.

W. Sanders Elected

The bureau has representa-es from various districts of the

ended were A. W. McDougle, represented the schools, and

Bessie Carr, who represented

35

Welfare Bureau

Asheville highway.

nanage family.

Thursday, January 30, 1947., Black Mountain, N. C.

On an American Red Cross sponsored tour aboard a Korean whaler, American GI sightseers get the big thrill of the day as the ship's captain assumes his position behind the harpoon gun ready for the whale to flash his bulk above water.

Fog Downs Sea Bird At Lenior

RALEIGH, Jan. 28-With the ceiling virtually zero, a red phalarope, around 300 miles off his coastal course, was ound grounded a few days go in the yard of C. S. Warren

Mrs. Warren brought the little fellow into the house, bundled him up and cottled him for a few days, but the rains, wind and fog had been too much of the mountain region withregard to creed. The majority Tysons Attend from other than Presbyterian es, and while the orphanage is Furniture Show er the Presbyterian control, deciding factor of receiving At High Point child is his need for a home. Freeman, superintendent, the

The body of the bird, somewhat similar to a sandpiper, was sent to the State Museum, where it will be mounted and placed on exhibition.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Tyson, Jr. play. By blending both of spent three days last week in High papers, Mr. Weatherford found the activities, practically all of Point, N. C., at the furniture show work on the farm, in the dor- where they purchased merchandise dory, and on the campus is done for Sossamon - Tyson Furniture them, under the guidance and company. They were accompanied are interested in both the country by Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Sossamon imple provision is made for and buyers for Mr. Sossamon's four and recreation in the gym- other stores in Western North m, which was a gift of Mrs. Carolina.

anklin S. Terry of New York Practically all of the nation's leading furniture and appliance Under present plans the family manufacturers show at the High the home is limited to 28 boys Point market which consists of 14 28 girls. There are two boys' floors of furniture and appliance trons and two girls' matrons, displays.

responsible for 14 children. Mr. Tyson states that the selecaddition there is a dining room tion of merchandise was much greater this year than at previous Those who have been aided at markets. However, high grade liv-Mountain Orphanage have ing room, and bedroom furniture is still scarce He was fortunate in to the curriculum is a study of e out to take their place as securing an ample supply due twentieth century world characful citizens of the community. uded in this group is a minisprincipally to the attraction the manufacturer saw in selling five of the social studies department. in the Synod of North Carolina stores on one order. In order to make room for these soon, Mr. Tyson is offering outstanding buys for clearance of a H. W. Sanders, resident manof Blue Ridge, was elected as Tyson ad on page eight of this pation in social and business situamber of the Buncombe county issue. The Black Mountain man- tions in modern world society, to elfare Planning bureau at the ager is fortunate in having a clean be discussed by speakers who are h annual dinner meeting of the stock. He has not accumulated any considered authorities in their heville Community Welfare inferior merchandise during the fields. ncil held Tuesday night at the war years. st Presbyterian church in Ashe-

P. T. A. Council Hears inty. Others from this area who Dr. Arthur Bannerman

Dr. Arthur Bannerman of Warren Wilson college discussed "Education" at a meeting of the coundepartment, will offer a course in Drug club. ty P. T. A. council held January 22 in the S. & W. Cafeteria.

Miss Virginia Long presented low are the reports of the U. the devotional for the group. E. Forest Service weather station N. Howell of Swannanoa present-Point Lookout. Readings are ed a program of songs.

de three times daily by W. G. Max Min Prec. county school P. T. A. groups pre- spending some of his leave with While here she attended the wed-.00 sent at the meeting, at which friends here. His home is at Nebo, ding of the former Miss Nancy Atlanta, Ga.; and Graham Newton, Robert Guy, director; and Mrs. Armistead, of Mentreal, chairs .00 Mrs. Arnold Powell presided. N. C.

Community Health Needs Pointed Out

Dr. Frank Howard Richardson spoke on "What Our Community Can Do to Keep Good Health," at the Presbyterian church Friday night. He urged that local doctors e used in periodic check-ups for chool children and that preventive innoculations be given all children. Dr. C. D. Thomas of the W. N. C. Sanatorium outlined briefly the work of the Medical Care Commission whose report is before the state legislature now. A. W. Mc-Dougle presented the need for a full time trained nurse in the pub-

Miss Susan Currell, local teachor of Bible in the public schools and chairman of the Good Health committee of the Council of Church Women in Black Mountain, planned the meeting and invited representations from all churches and organizations in town to attend.

Those attending the meeting were: Mrs. Bessie Carr, American Red Cross; Mrs. James Marshourn, Mrs. Clifford Porter, Woman's club; Mrs. Zeb Sawyer and Mrs. Grady Hardin, Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church; Miss Currell, Willis D. Weatherford, son of Dr. H. D. Smith, the Grange; Dr. Richand Mrs. W. D. Weatherford of ardson, Dr. C. D. Thomas, Dr. H. E. Wood, W. N. C. Sanatorium; from Europe where he has been and Lions club; A. W. McDougle, distributing relief to residents of Lions club and elementary school; the war torn countries for the past J. W. Isley, W. M. Morris, and and one half years He was L. B. Hudgins, Kerlee Baptist with the American Friends Service church. The Rev. W. H. Styles, pastor of the Presbyterian church conducted a worship service to

Wins First In Judging Contest

Jack Ramsey, senior at the Black Mountain High school, walked off with high scoring honors at the F. F. A. crop judging and seed identification contest held last Thursday at the Flat Creek High school. Also, the high school judging team, under the direction of C. J. Rich, head of the agricultural department, won second place in the team judging event and are in Shelby today competing in the state meet. Both the first and second place teams were eligible for the state. Flat Creek Sponsored annually by the North Carolina Crop Improvement association the contest is open to all schools having an F. F. A. chapter. Eleven chapters participated in the Flat Creek meet. Seeds and crops for the meeting last week were furnished by Mr. Roberts, teacher of agriculture at Bethel High school in Haywood county.

Dr. W. A. Ward New President Of Rexall Club

druggist, has been elected presiclub as the result of a recent secret ballot, according to an announce-242 American colleges and univer- ment made by Austin G. Walker, national association of Rexall Carolina. clubs. Dr. Ward, operator of Ward's Drug store, is an officer in

> MISS RICHARDSON HOME FOR WEEK-END

Lee Tucker.

ARE YOU INTERESTED? Contributed

In the cultural life of this community? In assisting to give the pupils of the public schools an opportunity to have instruction in art? In aiding the artists in exhibiting and selling their work?

In presenting programs and study in all of the Fine Arts? In the idea of a Peace Memorial that will honor all those who served their country during World War II and that will provide a place for the creation and enjoyment of all the arts? If so, the Black Mountain Arts Club cordially invites you to become a member and to avail yourself of these privileges. This club was organized in Black Mountain about 25 years ago and has held annual exhibitions and programs throughout the years it has now enlarged its scope to include all of the Fine Arts and to render a wider service to the community. Annual dues adult $2.00; couple $3.00; junior $1.00. Members receive written notices of all programs and are entitled to vote and to exhibit their work. Mr. Richard Seawright is the Treasurer.

Robert Freeman Named President Of Delta Kanna

Robert O. Freeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Freeman of the Mountain Orphanage, has been elected president of the Delta club, social fraternity group at Davidson college, it has been learned. Robert is a senior at Davidson. Other officers elected include Devant Williams, vicepresident, Homer Zedaker, secretary, and Rodney Whisnant, trea-

Pending acquisition of a per-Room of Oak Row as a meeting place. The first social function of the group will take place at Midwinters with a banquet on Saturda night, February 8.

Beginning in the spring of 1946 with an initial membership of eleven, to which four new men were added during last October, the group adopted a constitution in November which was ratified by the following fifteen Charter members: Robert O. Freeman, Black Mountain, N. C.; Homer Zedaker, Newell, N. C.; J. T. Fesperman, Kannaopolis, N. C.; William Richard, Norfolk, Va.; Rodney Whisnant, Lenoir, N. C.; Devant Williams, Savannah, Ga.; Spencer Murray, State College, Miss.; R. B. Dietrich, Blacksburg, Va.; Buford Goodman, Concord, N. C.; L. R. Miller, Concord, N. C.; Carl Spencer, Gastonia, N. C.; William Crosland, Atlanta, Ga.; Charles Morris, Concord, N. C.; James Gribben, Thomasville, Ga.; and David Dickson, Lakeland, Fla.

Favorable response was made by Sigma Chi officials to preliminary negotiations with the Delta Kappa group, and it was decided that immediate steps be taken to Dr. W. A. Ward, Swannanoa place Davidson college on the approved list, this being the first dent of the North Carolina Rexall requisite before a formal petition can be submitted.. Valuable assistance was rendered by Dr. Roy B. McKnight, grand praetor for secretary-treasurer of the inter- the province of North and South

Recognition of the Delta Kappa group was accorded by the local logy of College Poetry, Miss Lulu the North Carolina Pharmaceuti- Pan-Hellenic council with the G. McClure, head of the English cal association and the Asheville granting of the right to have nonvoting representation, and William Richard was elected to fill Present pledges include: Wil-Miss Ruth Richardson of Agnes liam Clark, Rock Mount, N. C.; George Stone, Edward Dupuy, and Rev. Robert King of Montreat. John Sigman, a member of the Scott college, Decatur, Ga., spent Harry Brown, Charlotte; John E. N. Howell. There were 50 members of the United States Navy and former the week-end with her parents, Carr, Charlotte; James Riddercouncil comprised of officers of resident of Black Mountain, is Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Richardson. vold, Iveryton, Conn.; W. A. Hop-Faison, N. C.

Rev. H. W. Baucom, Veteran Baptist Pastor, Retiring After 40 Years Service: Record Outstanding

P. T. A. Group To Be Shown Movie Tonight

The Black Mountain Parent-Teachers association will meet tonight at 8 p. m. in the grammar school auditorium. There will be a solo by Miss Alice Burnett and refreshments will be served by the

Dogs Must Have Tags And Muzles

At the regular meeting of the Black Mountain.

clamation shall be rigidly en- ing to Waynesville in 1930. forced by the police department.

department The board gave the department orders to pick up garbhouses, apartment houses, and any a year and retired from work. establishment within the city manent house, the club has made report that many residents have to retire from active duty. But he arrangements to utilize the Greek ignored the law and have dumped recovered rapidly and accepted the garbage on the ground.

> For violation of this law there will be a penalty of $25.00 plus cost. Regular inspections by the the board warns, and the law will he enforced.

Community Chorus Rehearsal Set for Tuesday Evening

The community chorus will begin practice Tuesday, February 4, at the First Baptist church, Robert Guy, director, has announced. The starting time will be 7:30 p. m.

In making the announcement, Mr. Guy issued an invitation to all those interested in singing to come and join the chorus.

This is the fourth year for the organization which had its beginning when Lt. Robert Guy formed and the Rev. H. W. Baucom, Jr., a small group at the Baptist church in the summer of 1944.

In the fall of that year, members from all the choirs in town met and organized the community tain. chorus which began rehearsing the Christmas cantata, "The Story of Christmas" by Matthews. This was presented at the State Street Methodist church during the Christmas season. The next year it was given again, still under the direction of Lt. Guy at the Methodist! church and at the chape's at Moore General. At this time it was broadcast over Station WWNC.

On Good Friday of 1946 at the First Baptist church the chorus presented "The Seven Last Words" Ministers' association of Asheville

This year plans are being made for the presentation of "The Cru- 22. He succeeds the Rev. H. B. cifixion" by Steiner.

Among those taking solo parts will be Mrs. Roy Alexander, Mrs. ed. Other officers elected are: The pres.; Miss Nora Summey, see Asheville Presbylery, reelected A. W. McDongle, accompanist. of the program committee.

The Rev. H. W. Baucom, pastor of the Black Mountain Baptist church since September 1, 1944, has submitted his resignation and will retire from the pastorate on March 31. The Rev. Mr. Baucom is not retiring from the ministry and will continue to preach from time

Born in Wake county, March 10, 1882, the Baptist pastor is closing out 40 years as a minister. He will be 65 in March. After attending two movies on interesting topics high school at Buies Creek, which is now Campbell college, he enter-A social hour will follow and e' Wake Forest college from which he was graduated in 1909. It was while still a student in college that the Rev. Mr. Baucom began his work as a minister. From January 1, 1907, until his graduation he served as pastor of four country churches around Wake Forest. After leaving Wake Forest he spent two years at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Kentucky.

His first pastorate after leaving Louisville was at Carthage, North town board of aldermen Tuesday Carolina, where he spent four night, January 28, Mayor J. L. years before moving to Moorhead Potter and the board deemed it City for three and one half years. necessary to issue a proclamation At this point he interrupted hisprohibiting all dogs from running church work to go to France with at large within the city limits of the 2nd Division during World War I as Y. M. C. A. secretary. For the sake of public safety His first church after coming home any and all dogs found running at from the war was at Smithfield, large within the city limits with- then he spent four years at Salem out license tags and muzzles shall church in Winston-Salem and five be impounded and killed. This pro- years at Wilmington before com-

But larger fields were calling Another problem which came up and in 1938 the Wake Forest gradfor much discussion at the meet- uate became chaplain of the Good ing was the rules of the sanitary Samaritan Mission in Asheville. Called back to his alma mater in 1943 as executive secretary of age only if it is in a container. alumni of the college, he became This applies to homes, business ill after serving a little more than Coming to Black Mountain in limits of the town of Black Moun- June, 1944, the Rev. Mr. Bancom tain. This move resulted from the bought a home here and planned eall to the Black Mountain Bar tist church in the late summer. The veteran pastor has been responsible for much improvement police department will be made, in whatever church he has served. A progressive minded man, he has advocated expansion of the building and educational programs in all the churches he has served. The Rev. Mr. Baucom loves outdoor life. Reared on a farm, he is intensely interested in farming and farm products. He is very fond of visiting sanatoriums and never misses an opportunity to travel out to W. N. C. and spend some time with the patients.

Mrs. Baucom was the former Miss Addie Tyner of Robeson county. They were married December 28, 1910. They have three children: Mrs. Howard Bodkin of Greenville, N. C., Mrs. Heber Peacock of Louisville, Kentucky, pastor of Tacoma Park Baptist church of Washington, D. C.

The Baucoms will continue to make their home in Black Moun-

Presbyterian Ministers Elect Rev. Irving Diehl

The Rev. Irving Diehl, pastor at Warren Wilson college, was elected president of the Presbyterian and vicinity at a meeting held at the S. & W. Cafeteria on January Dendy, pastor of the Weaverville Presbyterian church, who presidvice-president; the Rev. R. R. Me-Officers are A. W. McDougle, Clure, executive secretary of

KOREAN WHALING EXPEDITION

Blue Ridge Man Home From Relief Job In Europe

committee, a relief organization of Assigned the responsibility for open the meeting. the European area, the Blue Ridge resident has been concerned chiefduring the rast year with the Jack Ramse; distribution of food and clothing to needy children. Second and third on the list were the problems of helping refugees and displaced persons who had been bombed out of their homes and that of supplying trucks to carry materials to build or rebuild homes.

Contrary to the impression left Russians to be eager to hear more of America. They have a real re-

Montreat College Adds New Courses

Montreat college on Tuesday began its second semester as a fouryear college, registration for the new semester having been completed on Monday.

Among the new courses added ters, under Miss Elizabeth Hoyt This will inc'ude biographies of nersonages outstanding in world new items which will be arriving economic, social, and political fields luring the present century.

Dr. Margaret Spencer, dean, will number of items. A sample of these sponsor a course in general living, bargains appear in the Sossamon- a preparation for active partici-

In view of the fact that, among sities, Montreat college stood equal with Good Counsel College, White Plains, N. Y., as highest contributors to the 1946 Annual Anthocreative writing, with special em