MISS STROUPE WEDS
R. G. CLAYTON

Miss Doris Mae Stroupe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman W. Stroupe of Oteen was married to Robert G. Clayton, son of Mrs. Flossie Clayton of Swannanoa, in a candlelight ceremony at the Oteen Baptist church at 8 p. m. on September 19.

Dr. Guy B. Funderburk, pastor of the church, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Spruce and hemlock banked the altar, and cathedral tapers also were used.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Marjorie Short, pianist, and Leonard Clayton, vocalist.

The bride entered with her father. She wore a gown of white brocaded satin with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, calla lily sleeves and full skirt. Her fingertip veil fell from a beaded tiara. She carried a white Bible topped with gardenias, showered with ribbon streamers.

Her matron of honor, Mrs. Dorothy Stirewalt, wore a gown of blue satin and net. She carried an arm bouquet of mixed flowers.

Herman Stroupe, Jr., brother of the bride, served as best man.

The bride's mother wore a blue and white crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue suit with black accessories, and a corsage of red roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bridal table was covered with a white lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of asters. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Mrs. Edith Ensley, Miss Geraldine Wetzel, Miss Billy Shaddox, and Jeanne Mills assisted at the reception.

After the reception the couple left for a short wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a red flannel suit with white accessories, and a corsage of gardenias taken from her bridal bouquet.

Upon their return they will reside in their recently completed home in Beverly Hills.

MARRIED IN CHURCH CEREMONY

Miss Carolyn Elizabeth Deal, daughter of Mrs. Charles C. Brittain of Swannanoa, was married to James Turner Yates, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Yates of Kannapolis, on Thursday afternoon at the Swannanoa Presbyterian church.

The Rev. T. A. Painter, pastor, officiated. The church was decorated with white gladioli and ferns interspersed with lighted tapers in branched candelabra.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. A. W. McDougle, pianist and Mrs. Roy Alexander, aunt of the bride, vocalist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her stepfather, Charles C. Brittain, wore a gown of white satin made with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves ending in calla lily points over the hands, and full skirt ending in a train. Her two-tiered veil of bridal illusion was attached to lace head-dress with tuberoses trim in the back. Her shower bouquet of white roses and tuberoses was centered with an orchid.

Miss Mary Deal, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of green faille taffeta made with off-the-shoulder neckline and full skirt. She wore a matching headdress of tulle and carried a shower bouquet of mixed flowers tied with pink maline.

Miss Polly Brittain, sister of the bride, and Miss Alice Gibson were bridesmaids. They wore gowns like that of the matron of honor with matching headdresses and carried bouquets of mixed flowers tied with yellow maline.

Emelie Alexander, cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid and wore a pink dress made like those of the other attendants. She carried a small bouquet of mixed flowers.

Gerald Loyd of Kannapolis was best man, and ushers were Pete Brittain, brother of the bride, of Ridgecrest.

The bride's mother wore a black dress with aqua sequin trim, black accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a black crepe dress with black and white accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore an aqua wool gabardine suit with brown accessories and the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Yates will reside in Knoxville where Mr. Yates is a student at the University of Tennessee.

Mrs. Yates attended Lees McRae college at Banner Elk and was graduated as a laboratory technician from Bowman-Gray School of Medicine at Winston-Salem. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. R. D. Alexander of Swannanoa.

Mr. Yates was graduated from Lees-McRae college and served for two years with the marine corps during the war.

MRS. GODFREY AND MRS. POTTER HAVE BRIDGE PARTY

Mrs. C. C. Godfrey and Mrs. J. L. Potter entertained last Thursday afternoon at the home of the latter with five tables of bridge.

High score was held by Mrs. Clyde Jumper and second high by Miss Mary Hooker. Mrs. Fannie Fitzgerald won the consolation prize.

The home was beautifully decorated with astors, snapdragons, glads, and dahlias. Delightful refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Guests were Mrs. Douglas Jones, Mrs. Fannie Fitzgerald, Mrs. Jumper, Miss Lou Lindsey, Mrs. Robert Quillen, Miss Hooker, Mrs. Carter Uzzell, Mrs. W. W. White, Mrs. E. E. White, Mrs. Harry Barkley, Mrs. James Northcott, Mrs. Dempsey Whitaker, Mrs. S. M. Bittinger, Mrs. C. E. Spencer, Mrs. Ray Harrison, Mrs. G. L. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Jeter Riddle, Mrs. J. A. LUNCHEON FOR MRS. BENJAMIN MOELLER

On Thursday, September 25, Mrs. Fred Dawson, Mrs. Alan Perley, Sr., Mrs. Benjamin Hunter, and Mrs. Fred Berley entertained in honor of Mrs. Benjamin Moeller and her daughters, Misses Sarah, Marion, and Marguerite Moeller. Thirty guests were invited for luncheon and Mrs. Franklin S. Terry's lodge in Wolf Pit Cove was the ideal setting for this very delightful occasion. The lodge was decorated with autumn wild flowers, and the warm glow of the great log fire reflected the hospitality of the gracious hostesses. Canapes were served on the terrace overlooking the lake, and a buffet luncheon was served later in the Trophy Room. It was in the nature of a farewell party, for Major and Mrs. Moeller are leaving Black Mountain to make their home in New Mexico. Mrs. Moeller was showered with Bon Voyage gifts—mute evidence of the affection of her many friends who are loth to see her and Major Moeller leave Black Mountain.

MARKETING with Marjorie

If you have trouble luring your family away from the funnies and sports pages on Sunday mornings, try serving these tempters for breakfast. They'll make even Dick Tracy and the latest scores take a back seat!

APPETITE AWAKENER

Brightest breakfast idea in a month of Sundays . . . French Toast Logs made like this: Break 2 eggs into shallow dish; beat lightly with fork; add 1½ cups of milk and ½ tsp. salt. Cut crusts from 12 slices of tender-textured, oven-fresh MARVEL ENRICHED WHITE BREAD from the A&P. Dip each slice into egg mixture. Brown lightly on both sides in hot fat in heavy skillet. Spread with preserves, and roll. 6 servings.

FRY THIS FOR SIGNS!

To make small fry finish their farina . . . and sigh for seconds . . . fry ANN PAGE MELLO-WHEAT FARINA from the A&P. Cook 1 cup of this pure, refined wheat cereal in 1 quart of boiling salted water to a thick mush. Pour into small loaf pan; chill; turn out and cut into five or six ½-inch slices. Dip in seasoned flour and fry to a golden brown in hot sizzling fat with bacon or sausage fat. Serve with jelly, preserves, syrup.

JAM SESSION

I could eat jam-filled baked apples for breakfast Sunday, Monday or all days. To prepare them, I core medium-sized apples, place them in a baking dish, and fill each cavity with 1 tsp. of A&P's luscious ANN PAGE GRAPE JAM. Then I cover the bottom of the pan with water and bake in a moderate oven, 375° F., 30 minutes, or till the apples are soft, basting occasionally with the liquid in the pan.

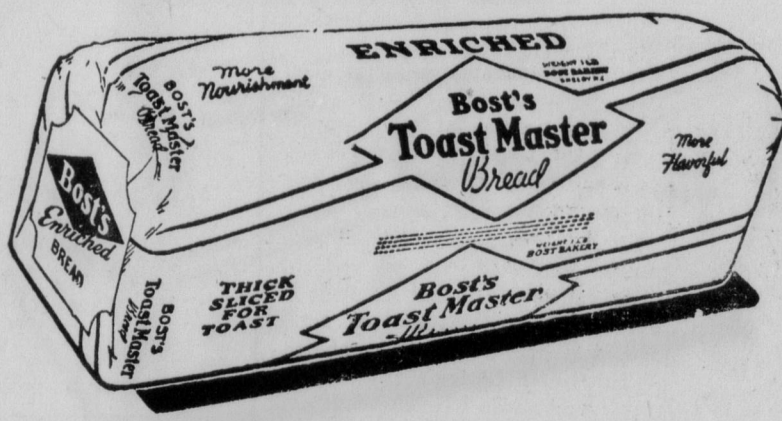

VOICE YOUR CHOICE!

One of the nicest things about Sunday is that it gives you leisure to enjoy all the coffee you want. And one of the nicest things about A&P COFFEE is that it gives you the exact blend you want. There are 3 delicious ones to choose from . . . EIGHT O'CLOCK (mild), RED CIRCLE (medium) and BOKAR (strong). Discover your favorite today . . . have it Custom Ground when you buy it, just right for your coffee pot . . . and wake up to coffee that tastes better every day in the week!
