MATILDA JANE WILSON WEDS EUGENE LA VANGE
Miss Matilda Jane Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson of Sylva, became the bride of Eugene B. Lavange of Scituate, Mass., son of B. H. LaVange of Scituate, Mass., Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in Allison chapel in Sylva. The Rev. W. Q. Grigg, pastor of the church officiated.

The vows were spoken before an improvised altar of pine trees, ferns, cherry blossoms and seven-branched candelabra holding cathedral tapers. Floor baskets of white gladiolus were placed at either side.

Mrs. Grover Wilkes and Miss Alice Weaver presented a program of wedding music. Mrs. Wilkes played Andante With Variations by Haydn. Miss Weaver sang "I Love Thee" by Greig and "Because" by d'Hardelot. "To The Evening Star" by Wagner was played during the processional and recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, John H. Wilson, Jr., wore a gown of white satin made on princess lines, with the skirt ending in a circular train. The round yoke was trimmed in satin applique and seed pearls. The long sleeves ended in calla lily points and covered buttons extended the full length of the waist in the back. Her two-tiered finger-tip veil was fastened to a coronet of old lace. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid and showered with white streamers.

For going away the bride wore an aqua gabardine suit with black accessories and the orchid detached from her prayer book.

Miss Agnes Wilson, sister of the bride and her only attendant, wore a dress of spring green marquisette and taffeta, and a head-dress of yellow net and flowers. Her arm bouquet was of mixed yellow flowers.

Frank Westerhoff of Scituate, Mass., served as best man. Ushers were Wade Wilson and Hal Wilson, brothers of the bride.

The mother of the bride wore a silk print dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink camelias.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. In the receiving line were the bride's parents and members of the wedding party.

Following the reception the couple left for Chicago, Ill., where they will make their home.

WOMAN'S CLUB HEAR DR. AND MRS. SHULL

The April meeting of the Black Mountain Woman's club was held at the home of Mrs. N. L. Perkins in Ridgcrest. The meeting was conducted by the garden group committee, Mrs. S. M. Bittinger, chairman.

Mrs. H. W. Baucom, president, presided. Mrs. Frank Buckner introduced Mrs. Nordheim and Miss Sarah McDougle, who, accompanied by Mrs. Alvin McDougle, sang three appropriate numbers, "Trees," "Brown Bird Singing," and "Garden of Tomorrow."

Mrs. Clyde Jumper introduced the speakers, Dr. and Mrs. Shull. Mrs. Shull gave several original poems. Dr. Shull gave an informative lecture on how plants grow, plant feeding, and their relationship to the nutrition of the human body. Mrs. Shull ended the meeting with a sonnet.

The guests were then served refreshments in the hostess' dining room which was beautifully decorated with spring flowers. The floral arrangement around the punch bowl was beautiful and original.

The guests enjoyed the beauty of Mrs. Perkins' gardens which were in the height of their spring glory.
