Dr. and Mrs. William L. Hatcher entertained for several days last week. Dr. and P. B. Wightman, Woodbury, Connecticut, Mrs. W. T. Cameron, Hammond, New York, and Mrs. J. W. Moore, Bethesda, Maryland.

The Rev. Tom E. Walters, and Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Hatcher are attending the Southern Baptist Convention meeting in Memphis, Tennessee, this week.

Dr. Hight C. Moore, former recording secretary for 33 years, is attending the sessions of the Southern Baptist Convention in Memphis, Tennessee, this week. He will return early next week. Dr. and Mrs. Moore retired to their home "Moore Haven" at Ridgecrest after twenty-five years in Nashville, Tennessee, where he was Editorial Secretary of the Southern Baptist Sunday School School board.

Rev. J. Fred Stimson will occupy the pulpit of the Ridgecrest Baptist church Sunday morning. Mr. Stimson came to Ridgecrest from Southern Pines, North Carolina, after a pastorate of sixteen years in that famous resort center. Before going to Southern Pines he was pastor at Ahoskie and other churches in North Carolina and Virginia. He is graduate of Wake Forest college and the Southern Baptist Theological seminary at Louisville, Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Biddix spent the week end in Statesville with Mr. and Mrs. Amos Sharpe.

Miss Vanetta Black and Leonard Biddix visited relatives and friends in Thomasville, North Carolina, Sunday.

The vanguard of the Ridgecrest Assembly staff arrived Saturday with the coming of dining room manager Ben Goddard and Sylvester Piel, St. Louis, Missouri, to take over preparations for opening the hotel dining room and kitchen.

The new hotel kitchen, which will be equipped with the latest in electric and steam cooking, has been completed under the direction of Joe Hollifield and will soon be in operation. The first of the season's conferences will open on June the first under the leadership of Dr. J. B. Lawson, Home Mission Secretary, and his co-workers of Atlanta.

Mrs. Edith Beam and sister Mary Ward spent Saturday and Sunday in their cottage "Galax Lodge" returning to their home in Erevard Sunday afternoon.

The Rev. and Mrs. Walter H. Dodd of Mocksville, North Carolina, are in their cottage for the summer. They have been summer residents of Ridgecrest for more than twenty-five years.

Friends here have just learned of the marriage recently of Miss Mary Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Morris, to Pud Morris of Old Fort, North Carolina. They are making their home in Virginia.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church held its May meeting at the home of
