RIDGECREST . . .
. . . RAMBLINGS

Dr. and Mrs. George Green, retired missionaries from Ogbomoso, Africa, have arrived for the summer and are located in "Rock Rest" cottage. More than forty years were spent by Dr. Green in medical missions in Africa.

The Rev. J. J. Johnson, former Missionary to the Cherokee Indians and now retired at Ridgecrest, preached twice in the First Baptist Church of Sylva, North Carolina, last Sunday.

Miss Naomi Braswell of Cramerton is at her cottage "Beside-The-Road" for the summer.

Mrs. Fan Shuford of Lincolnton, manager of the Ridgecrest Assembly Gift Shop, arrived last Friday and will be here for the summer.

Early arrivals for work on the Ridgecrest Assembly staff are Harvey Headrick of Longstreet, Louisiana, and Jay Cole of St. Louis, Missouri.

Miss Annabelle Turner is temporarily employed by the Assembly office for some extra work. Beginning June the first she will resume her work with the Ridgecrest post office as clerk.

David R. Wright, Jr., Canton, North Carolina, spent the day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Wright Sunday.

General Manager, Robert Guy, has things humming in preparation for the opening of the Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly on June the first. The enlarged kitchen and dining room will be in use this week. Hotels and rooming houses will be open for guests in a few days. It is interesting to see painters, carpenters, house cleaners, yard men, plumbers, repair men, gardeners, clerks, stenographers, bookkeepers, office workers and assistants rushing around and to and fro in a mad effort to be ready for the coming of the big conference.

Messengers from the Southern Baptist Convention, Memphis, Tennessee, returned Monday. Representing the Ridgecrest church were Rev. Tom E. Walters, Dr. Hight C. Moore, and Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Hatcher.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Morgan and daughter Susan returned from a visit with relatives and friends in Lebanon, Tennessee; Little Rock Arkansas; Okmulgee, Chickasha, Durant, Muskogee and Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. They returned from the Southern Baptist Convention to Durham where Mr. Morgan is Minister of Education in the First Baptist church there, after spending Monday and Tuesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Morgan.

Mrs. R. David Daniel and little daughter Cornelia after a three week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Kale, left by plane yesterday to return to her home and husband in Boston, Massachusetts, where Dr. Daniel is a member of the staff of Children's hospital.

Mrs. S. B. Moore is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Allred. She will return to her home in Troutville, Virginia, tomorrow.

Dr. J. N. Binford preached in the West Hickory and Clinchfield churches the past two Sundays. From Hickory they went to Greensboro for a visit with their daughter, and husband, Dr. and Mrs. Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Allred and daughter Rebecca spent the week end with his parents Mr. and Mrs. George Allred. Mr. Allred is a member of the U.S. Air Force and will soon leave for Los Angeles, California, from where he will sail with a replacement group to the South Pacific. Mrs. Allred and her little daughter Rebecca will return to their home in Traveler's Rest, South Carolina.

JIMMY DOTSON HERE
Jimmy Dotson and his son of Knoxville, Tennessee, are visiting his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Dotson, who live at the Black Mountain watershed. Mr. Dotson is employed by the Knoxville Poster Advertising company. He will remain here until Saturday.

SING AT MOORE HOSPITAL
Members of the Youth Fellowship of the Methodist church, accompanied by Mrs. Douglas Jones, counselor, and the Rev. and Mrs. Thad McDonald, went to Moore VA hospital to sing in the wards Sunday afternoon. This was much appreciated by the patients.
