MISS WILSON HONORED BY PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN
Miss Anne Wilson, who is the older of the two remaining charter members of the First Presbyterian church of Black Mountain, was honored with a surprise birthday party at the annual birthday meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of that church at the home of Mrs. Harry Barkley last Tuesday afternoon. Miss Anne was also presented with an honorary life membership in the Woman's Auxiliary of the Southern Presbyterian church. This was given to her by Circle Number Two.

Mrs. W. F. Wade, president, conducted a business meeting, after which Mrs. Gruver, program chairman, introduced Miss Myrtle Johnston, who gave the devotional, and J. W. Hill, who explained the need for the birthday offering which is used for improvements at Montreat and for the training school at Richmond, Va. At the close of his talk a generous offering for these two causes was given.

The hostesses, Mrs. Barkley, Miss Sarah Kirby, Mrs. J. J. White, Mrs. A. G. Callison, and Mrs. B. H. Pearce, served delicious refreshments.

Others in attendance were: Mr. W. A. Allison, Mrs. R. H. Howerston, Miss Belle Oneal, Mrs. Clifford Porter, Miss Lyde Wilson, Mrs. John Hill, Mrs. S. M. Bittinger, Mrs. S. S. Cooley, Mrs. Dinsmore Crawford, Mrs. Rose Crawford, Miss Susan Currell, Mrs. Fannie Fitzgerald, Mrs. William Griffin, Miss Mary Hooker, Miss Susan Hooker, Mrs. W. H. Harper, Mrs. A. E. Knoefel, Sr., Mrs. Albert Kissling, Mrs. John McMillan, Mrs. R. H. Reed, Mrs. J. M. Stout, Mrs. J. O. Williams, Mrs. E. E. White, Mrs. J. L. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Garfield Harris, Mrs. W. H. Styles, Mrs. C. D. Thomas, Miss Lily Woods, Mrs. Edith Wright, Miss Almeda Bicksler, J. H. Gruver, Harriett Barkley, and Dotty Burgess.

ATTEND DISTRICT HOME DEMONSTRATION MEETING

More than 200 Home Demonstration club members from Buncombe, Henderson, and Transylvania counties registered for the all-day district meeting held in Brevard last Tuesday.

An illustrated talk by Mrs. Walter Pike was the feature of the morning session. Mrs. Pike was a delegate at the convention of the Associated County Women of the world held in Holland last fall.

Prior to lunch three-minute reports were made by county chairmen, the women telling of club achievements and how they have been conducted during the past year.

Delegates enjoyed a picnic lunch at the First Baptist church. The afternoon session featured a skit "Pennies For Friendship," which related how money could be raised to aid reconstruction in European countries.

The sum of $47.00 was raised by passing wooden shoes. The money will be sent to "CARE."

The gavel for the greatest attendance went to Buncombe county clubs. Those attending from the Black Mountain club were: Mrs. Clarence Frady, president; Mrs. Finley Stepp, vice-president; Mrs. Walter Stepp, clothing project leader; and Mrs. John Melton, food conservation leader.

MRS. SPEED ANNOUNCES SISTER'S MARRIAGE

Mrs. John Speed has announced the marriage of her sister, Miss Evelyn Gilbert, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Gilbert, to Fred E. Ensley, son of Mrs. Ensley of Black Mountain. The ceremony was performed Saturday, May 22.

Mrs. Ensley attended Black Mountain High school and Blanton's Business college. Mr. Ensley attended Black Mountain high school and the Christ School for Boys.

Mrs. Ensley wore an imported dress of raw silk, with accessories of navy blue.

Mr. Ensley is connected with the Beacon manufacturing company. They will live in Black Mountain.

KERLEES CELEBRATE 26TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kerlee were honored on their twenty-sixth wedding anniversary with a dinner at Sarg's, given by their daughters, Elsie and Willie, and David Nache, on Thursday, May 20, at 7 p. m. The occasion was also Mrs. Kerlee's birthday.

Lighted candles on the cake and yellow rosebuds were the decorations. After the dinner they attended a movie.

MONTREAT AUXILIARY MEETS AT ASSEMBLY INN

About fifty members and guests gathered in the Assembly Inn to celebrate the birthday meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Montreat church. Mrs. Mellinger Henry presided at the business session. Mrs. Rex and Mrs. Rupert McGregor reported, as official delegates, the meeting of the Appalachia Presbyterian auxiliary, which met in the Black Mountain Presbyterian church. Mrs. C. E. Dorsey had charge of the program and conducted the devotional services. She next introduced Dr. Rupert McGregor, President of the Mountain Retreat Association, as the speaker of the afternoon. After the meeting delicious refreshments of punch and cake were served by Miss Elizabeth Hoyt and her committee. The long table was beautifully decorated with pink and white birthday cakes with the proper number of lighted pink candles. The next meeting of the Auxiliary will be held June 15 with Mrs. Mildred Byers in charge of the program.
