

Southern Given Award By Safety Council

America's highest honor for achievements in industrial safety, the Distinguished Service to Safety Award of the National Safety Council, has been won by the Southern Railway System. The announcement was received today by the Southern's President Ernest E. Norris from Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, Chicago, Illinois. The award, Mr. Dearborn said, is given only to organizations that have achieved an outstanding safety record. It is based in safety attainments during 1947.
