SLEEP

You don't appreciate how wonderful sleep is until you have had one or two wakeful nights. When occasionally nervous tension keeps you awake half the night, or when you are nervous, keyed up, jittery.

Old Fort News

Mrs. Asbury Barnette, state chairman of art for the Federation of Women's clubs, addressed the members of the Old Fort Women's club on Friday at the regular meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. Vann Hughes. The retiring president, Mrs. Kimball Miller, was presented a pin as a token of appreciation of her work during the past two years.

Mrs. W. C. Macon was installed as president for the coming year. Mrs. Janie Reid, and Mrs. Joe Giles were introduced as the new vice-presidents of the club.

Visitors at the meeting included Mrs. Ed Crawford of Tampa and Miss Lenore Lula of Washington, D. C.

The hostess was assisted by her two young daughters in serving an ice course during the social hour.

New officers of the Old Fort Rotary club, elected at a recent meeting, are J. Murray Mackey, president; H. R. Kerly, vice-president; Albert S. Shiflet, secretary; Rudolph Reagan, treasurer.

Dr. D. M. McIntosh is the retiring president.
