Conferences Close Second Week At Ridgecrest

Wednesday, July 7, sees the close of the second week of Baptist Sunday School conferences. Approximately 1,500 delegates have attended the sessions this week. The conferences have been directed by Dr. J. N. Barnette, secretary, Sunday School department, Baptist Sunday School board, Nashville, Tenn. Simultaneous conferences have been held daily, except Sunday, for the teachers, officers, and other workers of Baptist Sunday schools of the Southland; each conference has been led by the superintendent of that department for the Baptist Sunday School board.

Dr. R. Paul Caudill was the speaker each morning, leading a fervent Bible study. Dr. Caudill is pastor of First Baptist church, Memphis, Tenn. The speaker each evening was Dr. W. Marshall Craig, pastor, Gaston avenue Baptist church, Dallas, Texas.

TROOP 47

Troop 47 has just returned from a good week at camp Daniel Boone. We passed off some of our requirements and three boys passed off the Pathfinding Merit badge, Andy Cook, Arnold Runion and Andy Jumper, Gerald Burgess passed off his second class work. Our acting Scoutmaster won the honor of being elected to the Order of the Arrow.

We go before the Board of Review Friday and to the Court of Honor Monday, July 12.

Our troop won two belt awards on table inspection. All boys won swimming awards and the following boys were made C swimmers: John Buckner, Andy Cook, Arnold Runion, Sonny Melton and Stewart Byron.

Our next meeting will be held at Tabernacle church on Tuesday, July 13, at 6 o'clock. Every scout is expected to be present.

Andy Jumper, Scribe.
