Dancing Classes Are Discontinued

The dancing school which has been held at the club house each Wednesday morning, has been discontinued because of the polio situation.

The classes consisted of rhythmic exercises and tapping lessons, under the direction of Miss Hyatt of Asheville. Miss Hyatt sends her regrets to all the children, as she had enjoyed teaching them.

Some of the students who attended the dancing school were Barbara White, Toni Taylor, Judy Byrd, Carolyn Hudson, Peggy Cooley, Beth Summey, Nonie and Kay Greene, Bobbie Babb, Pat Randolph, Mac Kirkpatrick and Tommy Sobol.

It is hoped that the class can continue after school starts, and will be open for all children.

WILL PLAY FRIDAY

Eugene Byrd, president of the Church Softball league, announced today that the games which were postponed Monday night because of rain would be played off Friday, July 16. The Baptists will play the Hosiery Mill in the first game and the Methodists will take on the powerful Friendship Chapel boys in the nightcap.
