K. Gray Pitches Friendship To 11-3 Triumph

Kermit Gray held the Presbyterian sluggers to six harmless bingles Friday night as he and his Friendship Chapel mates grabbed an 11 to 3 decision. Gardner bounced out three safeties to pace the winners while Tyson led the losers with two safe blows, one of which was a double.

Lost In Atlanta—Or With Clyde Dabbs Over The Fourth Holidays

When you go to the big city, Clyde Dabbs suggests that you either ride the bus or train or take along a balloon to float from your car of you drive.

Last week in Atlanta Clyde, genial proprietor of the Blue Ridge Donut shop, alighted from his car and went for a stroll along the great white way. All went well until Dabbs started back to where he THOUGHT he left his car. Two hours and many miles of taxi riding later a weary taxi driver pointed across the street and asked eagerly: "Isn't that your car over there?"

"No, that couldn't be it," Dabbs insisted. "I wasn't even in this end of town." But to satisfy the taxi man he went and looked—and it was his car.

Jaycees Decide To Postpone "Fun For You"

Acting on advice of local physicians and the county health authorities, the Black Mountain junior chamber of commerce late Wednesday afternoon decided to postpone their big show "Fun For You" which had been scheduled for the grammar school auditorium Friday and Saturday nights, July 23 24, Oscar Tinney, president, revealed. The announcement came after the first section of the NEWS had gone to press with the front page story that the show would be held.

Dr. Eugene Knoefel, Dr. Sam Cooley, and Dr. C. D. Thomas were among those whom the jaycee committee asked for advice before deciding on postponement. President Tinney and the board of directors decided to postpone the show until such time as authorities deem it safe for crowds to gather.

Baptists Pace Women's League

Allred and Leagon pounded out homers Thursday night to take over the limelight as the Baptists slapped down Ridgecrest, 15 to 7. Goodman, hurling to Nanney, was given a big lead during the first two innings and coasted in from there.

Stevens Wins Own Game With Smashing Single

Stevens, Hosiery Mill pitcher, singled off Carl Kerlee's glove in the last of the seventh Friday night as the Millers handed Doss Kerlee's Methodists their first defeat of the second half, 7-6. Two were down, and Benny Marett, who had tripled, was roosting on third base when Stevens stepped up and ended the game with a line drive that sent Marett loping over the plate. Both Stevens and Whitaker pitched good games, giving up eight and 10 hits respectively.

Notice! Montreat Concert Is Called Off

Because the concert by the Transylvania Music camp band had been arranged for Montreat, Saturday evening, July 17, as a special attraction for children and young people on the Montreat conference grounds, the Mountain Retreat association of which Dr. J. Rupert McGregor is president decided Wednesday that in order to comply with the recommendations of county health officers that gatherings of children and young people be called off, the concert has been canceled.

If at a later date this season the polio situation clears up, Dr. McGregor said that an effort will be made to arrange a date for the band to come to Montreat, since this, in other seasons, has been one of the highlights for children and young people at this Presbyterian conference ground.

Methodists And Ridgecrest Win

The Methodists defeated the Presbyterians, 9-6, and Ridgecrest walloped the Baptists, 15 to 6, in Church league games. Jack Milbee, Nordhielm, and Tull led the winners with two hits each. Lee Marett and T. Greene pasted two apiece for the losers.

Paul Harris, Clyde Gray, and Burgess starred at bat as the Ridgecresters won over the Baptists.

Missing Ping Pong Table Is Mystery To Baffle Detectives

The big mystery around town these days is 'what happened to the ping pong table?'

The table, which belonged to Jim Dougherty of the Black Mountain Lumber company, was last seen in the club room at the fire department. Believing that it was still there Mr. Dougherty donated it to the youth center for use at the high school.

Then the fun started. When Gene Byrd went to the fire department to pick it up, he learned that it had disappeared sometime during the war years. If any one has any idea where the ping pong table is now, he will do a great service by either calling the NEWS or Mr. Byrd. The table is badly needed at the youth center.

Junior Legion Champions Will Be Given Trip

Announcement has been made by Woodcock Motor Co., local Ford dealer, that the American Legion Junior Baseball championship teams of North and South Carolina will be given a free trip, via chartered plane, to Detroit, Mich., as guest of the Ford and Lincoln Mercury dealers in the Charlotte district. In cooperation with the Ford Motor Company, plans are now being made for the event which will take place during the early part of September. The exact date will be announced as soon as possible after completion of elimination tournaments which are now under way.

Last year's champions (Kannapolis, N. C., and Greenwood, S. C.) were given the same trip, and it proved to be highly educational and entertaining.

Leaving the Charlotte, N. C., airport at 8:30 a. m. the two DC-3 planes arrived at Willow Run airport at noon. There, two Ford busses met the teams and took them directly to Ford's aircraft building cafeteria for luncheon. Afterwards they witnessed a game between the Detroit Tigers and the Boston Red Sox. That evening they attended a banquet and were

Play Will Continue In Women's League

A canvass of the managers of the Women's softball league, disclosed that the majority wished play to continue, providing all proper precautions were taken, league headquarters reported late Wednesday night. However, it was requested that managers having players under 16 get the consent of the parents before allowing those of that age group to play.

Doyle Turner Drives Home Winning Run

The high flying championship Friendship Chapel team met its Nemis in the person of McElrath, Ridgecrest hurler, on Friday evening and went down to defeat in eight innings by the score of 3-2. Since Stephenson was also "right" the game was one of the best of the season. F. C. took a one run lead in the first inning when they secured their only hits in the ball game. Ridgecrest was unable to score for the first three innings until Paul Harris opened the Ridgecrest half of the fourth with a home run blast to right field.

Ridgecrest took the lead in the sixth, scoring an un-earned run on a hit by N. Harris and an error. F. C. bounced back in the first half of the seventh to tie the score on errors. Then in the last half of the eighth with one away, P. Harris walked, N. Harris went out, P. Harris advanced to second. With two out, Manager Doyle Turner who had been held hitless all evening lashed out a single to "ice" the game.
