—CIVIL SERVICE—Examination

An examination was announced today by the U. S. Civil Service Commission for filling Nautical Scientist positions in Washington, D. C., and throughout the United States, at salaries ranging from $3,397 to $5,905 a year. The majority of the positions are in the Hydrographic Office of the Department of the Navy; vacancies will also be filled in the Coast and Geodetic Survey, Department of Commerce, and in other Federal agencies.

A civil service examination covering insurance officer positions, salaries from $3,397 to $4,902 per annum, is now open in the Veterans Administration, it was stated today by J. B. Wooddell, secretary of the board of U. S. civil service examiners, at the local post office.

HUNTER GUEST

Everett Elting has returned to his home in New York after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hunter.

It's mighty nice to be able to add a few extra dollars to the family fun fund... especially if you're planning a vacation or week-end trip. So why not start saving them now with the help of dollar-stretchers like these?

BRIGHT SAIL BUDGET AIDS

If you want efficient products that save you money, I heartily recommend the BRIGHT SAIL line of household cleaning aids. From floor wax to soap flakes they're marvelous buys. Get them the next time you're shopping at your thrifty A&P!

LOW-COST CROQUETTES

To make 12 economical fish croquettes, melt 3/4 cup of A&P's "Perfect Blend" DEXO, and stir in 2 cups flour, 1 1/2 tsps. salt, dash pepper and 2 tsps. chopped parsley. Add 1 cup milk gradually; and cook, stirring constantly, till smooth and thick. Add 2 cups cooked flaked fish (1 lb.) and 2 cups soft bread crumbs. Chill. Form into croquettes and roll in fine cracker or bread crumbs. Add 2 tsps. water to 1 beaten egg; dip croquettes in mixture, cover with entire surface; roll again in cracker crumbs. Fry in deep fat, 3-4 minutes. Drain on paper towels.

MEAT MONEY-SAVER

The rump and round are among the most economical cuts of beef and veal. Yet they're just as good sources of protein as more expensive cuts. Just as good to eat, too, fixed this way: Season 1 lb. beef or veal rump or round, cut about 1 inch thick. Sprinkle with flour, pounding to help make meat tender. Cut into serving pieces; brown in fat; add 2 cups A&P's IONA TOMATO JUICE. Simmer 15 minutes.

FREE RECIPE BOOKLET!

The recipe I just gave you is from one of my favorite collections—"24 Ways to Win Praise." This FREE booklet contains 24 simple recipes for making luscious cakes, frostings, pies, cookies, muffins and fried foods with "Perfect Blend" DEXO, A&P's all-purpose shortening. Just write: A&P, Dept. G, 420 Lexington Ave., New York 17, N. Y., for FREE copy.

MISS WADELLE WEDS REID BAILEY, IN BEAUTIFUL CEREMONY

Miss Melba Louise Waddell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Waddell of Hazelwood was married to Reid Hamilton Bailey of Madison and Asheville on July 11 at four o'clock at Gaither Hall, Montreat.

The Rev. James M. Gregg of Bristol, Tennessee, performed the ceremony. Austin Lovelace of Greensboro, pianist and Mr. Wall of Asheville, soloist, presented a program of wedding music. Included in the selections were "Clair De Lune" by Debussy, "Because" from "Joslyn" by Gourdard, and "Ava Marie," Schubert. The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was dressed in white slipper satin made with tight fitting bodice, long sleeves ending in calla lily point over the hand, and a full sweeping skirt ending in a circular train. Her fingertip length veil of illusion was attached to a coronet of seed pearls.

She carried a bouquet of split carnations and sweetpeas.

Miss Virginia Dobbins of Anderson, S. C., served as maid of honor. She wore a pale pink organdie gown with a tight fitting bodice, and a full flared skirt. Her headpiece was of matching pink organdie. She carried an arm bouquet of old fashioned mixed flowers tied with a pale orchid and silver ribbon. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Katherine McMinn of Hendersonville, N. C., Miss Nanette Carter of Asheville, Miss Marjorie Elledge of Winston Salem, and Miss Sue Wetzel of Asheville. They were dressed in matching gowns of soft pastel colored organdie fashioned on the same lines as the maid of honor. They carried nosegays of old fashioned mixed flowers. Little Miss Betty Rae Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Carpenter of Salisbury, N. C., was the flower girl. She was dressed in a white slipper catin dress like that of the bride. She carried a basket of flower petals with a white satin ribbon and her headpiece was white satin and pastel flowers.

James Llewellyn served as best man.

Ushers were Wayne Gardner of Black Mountain, Hugh Vineyard of Knoxville and Asheville, and Wayne Davis, Asheville.

An informal reception was held centered with a three-tired wedding cake.

The bride's mother was attired in a black printed silk dress with black accessories and a corsage of green orchids.

For traveling Mrs. Bailey wore a beige gabardine suit with red accessories. The couple will reside at the Fleetwood apartments on Montreat road in Black Mountain, N. C.

Mrs. Bailey received her education in schools of North Carolina and Virginia. She has been employed by Western Union Telegraph company as relief manager since 1945 and is now manager at the Black Mountain office.

Mr. Bailey is a graduate of Madison high school and attended the Law University of Honolulu. He is now employed as floor manager at Belk's department store in Asheville.

Approximately 100 out-of-town guests attended the wedding.
