BY H. L. FRACHISEUR

GARLAND E. CROUCH, MOVERS OF HEAVY MACHINERY.

For many years a leading citizen of Asheville, G. E. Crouch is accomplished in business activity and beloved for his fine philanthropies. Mr. Crouch, serving Asheville and area, since 1920 in the moving of heavy machinery, safes, boilers, etc., and house moving, offers quick service because he knows how. Located 183 Clingman Ave. Phone 22484, he is an outstanding business leader.

His integrity and fairmindedness are qualities for which he is honored and trusted wherever he is known, and his dynamic personality, his sincerity of purpose, and his devotion to worthwhile principles of thinking and living have endeared him to a host of personal friends and others who know him by reputation. His position is one of distinction in his city and in the whole wide circle of his acquaintance.

Mr. Crouch's advanced ideas along his business and his sound judgment of business affecting improvements to public affairs are regarded as invaluable by his associates. He has not only been an able business man but he is a leader in the civic life of his city.

In his loyalty and devotion to Greater Asheville, Mr. Crouch has yielded precedence to no man. Whatever his many-sided activities are, he is consistently generous in donating to worthy causes. Personally there is no more beloved man in Asheville than G. E. Crouch, and he always gives to the onward march of humanity.

M. E. HAYNES, DIXIE ELECTRIC CO.

A leading citizen of Greater Asheville, M. E. Haynes is prominent in civic and business affairs. He is the executive of the Dixie Electric company, commercial, industrial and house wiring, competent mechanics to serve you with estimates freely given, 393, Haywood Rd., West Asheville, phone 38331.

Mr. Haynes has contributed to professional and business advancement and has earned the respect and admiration of his fellow-citizens. His kindly generosity and fair-mindedness are qualities for which he is widely known and loved. His achievements are many-sided and constructive; Mr. Haynes has always had an interest in the civic development of Greater Asheville, making his influence an effective force to promote the cause of progress.

Needless to say, Mr. Haynes takes considerable pride in the growth of his business for which he has worked so hard. Its outstanding business marks this establishment as one of the leading and outstanding business firms of Greater Asheville.

Mr. Haynes is a man whose faithfulness to duty and honesty in all business transactions are matters of public knowledge and whose devotion to his customers and loyalty to his friends are unquestioned. He is a man that has never permitted his ambition to be thwarted by temporary obstacles, but nevertheless, despite his numerous business duties is always ready and willing to aid all worthwhile civic activities.

E. C. BURLESON, BURLESON'S WHOLESAL FRUIT AND VEGETABLES

In every city throughout the country, there are a number of business, professional and civic leaders, who can be pointed out as having a threefold part in the progress of their city. One such personality of Asheville is E. C. Burleson, executive of the Burleson's Wholesale Fresh Fruit and Vegetables, 112 N. Lexington, and E. C. Burleson Contractor, 241 Valley.

His useful and varied services during the time he has been in business cannot be enumerated here, but suffice it to say that as a business executive he holds the highest position of solidity of judgment, enlightened knowledge of public interest, faithful devotion to duty, and dignity and urbanity of demeanor.

Mr. Burleson's intuitive understanding of the needs of the people of Asheville and surrounding area is valuable and an important factor in the successful promotion of many civic activities. Mr. Burleson has always been a keen business man, yet he is always ready and willing to lend a hand in any undertaking for the people in general. Genial and tolerant as he is, still his constructive philosophy has been the guiding force behind many a civic project.

D. M. SNELSON, BLUE RIDGE MILK PRODUCERS CO-OPERATIVE ASSN.

Few men have enjoyed, as has D. M. Snelson, president of the Blue Ridge Milk Producers Co-operative Association, 52 Broadway, Asheville, that unqualified attachment and esteem of his fellow beings which forms the distinction of his business career. His instincts, thoughts, desires, and sympathies fit him perfectly for the position he holds in the business world. Faithfully and honestly, with few words and many acts, he performs his duties as a man and as a citizen.

Mr. Snelson has a wealth of those sterling traits which make him a credit to the city. He is indeed a leading citizen and business leader, always working for the betterment of the people.

The consideration of Mr. Snelson for others and his gentlemanly and courteous manner are particularly appreciated by his fellow-workers. He has always cooperated with others in making not only his city but our great state an outstanding one. Imbued with liberal public spirit, he has been among the devoted friends of the cause of civic improvements and has always given to it an earnest and zealous support.

It is enough to say that in every respect, Mr. Snelson performs his duties as a citizen with advantage to the people. This occasion does not even permit an outline of Mr. Snelson's high endowments and accomplishments, but it can truthfully be said that the success of his positions in the business world can be traced directly to his ability and skill.
