Legionnaires Face Stiff Opposition At Valley Springs

The Black Mountain American Legion five, leaders of the Western North Carolina league, will square off against the Old Fort Rockets at 8:30 p. m. Monday, December 27, in the opening round of the Valley Springs invitational tournament. Four games will be played — at 6:30, 7:30, 8:30, and 9:30.

The semi-finals will be played Friday and the finals Saturday evening at 8:30.

The Valley Springs holiday invitational will feature some of the strongest teams in this section with several members of the WNC league participating. Entries include Marshall, Haw Creek, Leicester, Hendersonville, Service Point, Martel Mills, Barnardville, Sodaland, Beacon Mills, Valley Springs, Biltmore, Burnsville, Berkley and Colonial.

To meet this challenge Coach Pete Earle, who will have charge of the team in the absence of Coach Carl Myers, will depend on practically the same team that fought through to the state finals last spring. The one exception will be Doyle Turner who is out with a broken ankle. Filling in for Turner, who is considered a top defensive guard, will be Tom Burnett. Earle will start Brake and Stephenson at the forwards, Edwards at the other guard, and will fill the center spot himself.

A large delegation of local fans are preparing to attend the Monday night session which opens at 6:30.
