SWANNANOA CLUB HAS MEETING

The December meeting of the Swannanoa Woman's club was held with Mrs. Roy Alexander, with Mrs. Ted Folsom, Mrs. W. A. Porter, and Mrs. R. D. Alexander assistant hostesses.

After the business session and reports from the book and garden clubs by Mrs. Folsom and Mrs. Carrie Porter, Ms. A. B. Whitt reported on the blood bank to be established in Asheville soon.

A nominating committee of Mrs. W. A. Porter, Mrs. Henry Franklin, Mrs. Oliver Alexander, Mrs. Frank Davidson, and Mrs. Wendell Patton, was appointed.

Christmas carols were sung by Mrs. Roy Alexander, Miss Margie Lisherness, Ed Dupuy, and Robert Guy, accompanied by Mrs. Guy. Mr. Guy told of carols in other countries.

Christmas punch and cookies were served. Mrs. J. B. Nichols, president of the club, presided at the punch bowl.

Visitors at the meeting were Mrs. Bessie Carr, Black Mountain, and Miss Marguerite McKenzie of Ridgecrest.

ACTIVITIES CLUB HEAR MR. SEAWRIGHT

Mrs. A. C. Garland entertained the Activities club at her home Tuesday, December 14 at 8 p. m. Richard Seawright who had charge of the program, gave an excellent talk on potted plants and other floral decorations in the home. He showed a number of beautiful and interesting arrangements.

A Christmas dinner party to be given at the Clubhouse Tuesday, December 28, was planned. Mrs. R. M. Crowder and Mrs. Robert Free are in charge of arrangements. Mrs. E. K. Brake and Mrs. Crowder will serve on the Brownie troop committee.

Delightful refreshments were served to Mrs. L. C. Shive, Jr., Mrs. Crowder, Mrs. William Ellington, Mrs. E. H. Knight, Mrs. Brake, Mrs. Robert Free, Mrs. Thad McDonald, and Mrs. B. E. Nordhielm.

HATCH'N PATCH HAS CHRISTMAS PARTY

Miss Muriel Higginbotham entertained the members of the Hatch'n Patch club with a Christmas party held at the home of her parents last Friday night.

Bridge was played with prizes going to Mrs. George Dougherty, Mrs. Pat Randolph, and Mrs. Gustavo Brown. Little Janice Higginbotham, sister of the hostess, distributed the gifts for the Christmas exchange. At the end of the evening a dessert course was served to Mrs. Chester Sobol, Mrs. G. C. Raefield, Mrs. Carl Kerlee, Jr., Mrs. Ray McSwain, Mrs. Pete Earle, Miss Martha Covin, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Dougherty, and Mrs. Randolph.

The club will not meet during the holidays and the next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Brown on January 7.

MRS. HARVEY PRESSLEY HOSTESS TO CIRCLE

Circle No. 2 of the Methodist church met Tuesday evening, December 14, at the home of Mrs. Harvey Pressley. Mrs. Douglas Jones was in charge of the program, during which she led the group in singing of Christmas carols. After the meeting refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. J. P. Ashley, Mrs. J. N. Goodman, Mrs. Thad McDonald, Mrs. D. O. McDougale, Miss Louise Simmons, Mrs. J. N. Wright, Mrs. Zeb Sawyer, Mrs. Finley Stepp, Mrs. D. P. Dinwiddie, Mrs. Fred Cook and Mrs. Beulah Beckwith. There'll be a "Waiting Line" on Long Distance, too

We expect the biggest rush of Long Distance telephone calls we've ever had this Christmas. Even with every circuit and switchboard in service, there may be delays.

To avoid the rush, why not make your calls before Christmas Eve or after Christmas Day?
