

Merry Christmas

To All

With many key players gone from the 1948 squads, the Darkhorses and Nightmares have shown they are not to be taken lightly by bumping such opposition as Fairview, Warren Wilson, and Old Fort. The schedule will get tougher after the holidays but from all indications the locals will be ready.

Of course everyone expects the Legion five, under the direction of Coach Carl Myers, to live up to advance press notices as one of the state's better teams. And that is exactly what has happened. Although loser of two games in the WNC league, the Legionaires have not yet hit their stride. The boys will have to be reckoned with before the state finals get under way at Asheboro.

Running a business without advertising is like winking at a girl in the dark. You know what you're doing, but nobody else does.

Among those who have Christmas light and decorations worthy of mention, those that we've seen, that is, son, are Mr. and Mrs. June Glenn, Sr., Mrs. Georgia Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Lance, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Greene, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Longcoy, Mr. and Mrs. Penn Hunter, Dr. and Mrs. C. D. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Jones, Mr. and Mrs. John Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Wade Rowland.

These are the ones we've seen. We're sure that there are many more.

CHRISTMAS PARTIES AT V A HOSPITAL

On Friday, December 17, at 10:00 a. m., a Christmas party was held in the Recreation Hall at the Veteran's hospital at Swannanoa. Santa Claus (really M. R. Brownlee, Chief of Special Services at the hospital) distributed gifts to all the ambulatory patients. The gifts were given by the employees of the Southern Bell Telephone Company of North and South Carolina through the Red Cross. Christmas carols followed the distribution of gifts. The Black Mountain-Swannanoa Chapter of The American Red Cross served coffee and doughnuts at the party, with volunteers from the Chapter assisting with the serving and social hour which followed.

A similar party was held for colored patients, for which the Chapter also provided refreshments.
