

Locals Hit Form For Double Win

Hitting the form which had been expected of them all season, the Black Mountain High school cage teams turned back powerful Emma in a doubleheader on the enemy floor Friday night. Both boys and girls played smart ball and moved out in front early in the contest to stay the rest of the way.

The girls and boys won by identical scores—40-25.

Reba Gouge, who has suddenly found the range, dropped in 20 points as she led the girls to victory in the opening attraction. Emma proved a tough foe in the first quarter and held the Nightmares to a 10 to 9 margin. But the locals picked up steam in the second and third periods to stretch the bulge to an even 20 points, 38 to 18, as the final canto got under way. Madge Wilhide and Jewel English were second in scoring with 8 and 9 respectively.

The Black Mountain guards, W. Justus, Malloy, Norton, and Watkins held Emma to one point in the third quarter.

The Darkhorses, playing one of their better games of the season, raced out in front 10 to 3 in the first quarter and 18 to 9 at half-time. Coach Buffalo Humphries used subs freely in the contest. Ramsey, who continues to improve at the pivot slot, led both teams in scoring with 12. Poteat was second for the winners with 10.

LIBRARY NEWS

Have you seen the pickled octopus in the adult room of the library on one of the shelves in the display case? This is among the shells of a fine collection owned and exhibited by Craig Cooley. A scotch bonnet found at Sanibel Island, Florida, is one of Craig's chief treasures. There are some unusual shells from the South Pacific given to Craig by Roy Taylor. Among these are a bishop's mitre and several cowreys. Notice the giant band shell and the bear's paw clam on the top shelf. The sea horse was purchased from a collector, but the star fish with various numbers of legs were mostly found on the beach.
