

Date For Rose Exhibit Is Set By Garden Club

The Asheville council of garden clubs will sponsor a Rose exhibit at the Battery Park hotel, June 12, which will be open to the public. Anyone may enter roses, either as specimens or in the arrangement class, there will be three prizes awarded. There is no entry fee and no admission charge but a silver offering will be taken during the hours the exhibit will be open to the public from two till nine p. m. Any one planning to enter roses must have them placed by 11 a. m. Judging will begin at 12 noon. Mrs. C. L. Kellogg is general chairman, and Mrs. W. Dillon Chambers is president of the council.

We are most anxious to have all Western North Carolina represented at this rose exhibit.

Customers' Corner

Most of our customers don't know all the details of the OPS regulations concerning food prices.

After all, there are quite a few of these government rules, and some of them are very involved.

But we can assure you that the men and women of A&P are wholeheartedly living up to the letter and spirit of these orders as they apply to our operations.

So now, as always, you can buy at A&P with confidence that you will get the same high quality food to which you have been accustomed; and that you are being charged the correct price and getting full weight.

If there are ever any doubts in your mind, please let us know, and we'll be glad to clear them up. Please write:
