Tuesday Bridge Club Meets

The Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club held its annual birthday party in the form of a covered dish luncheon on Tuesday, June 12, at the home of Mrs. W. A. Ward on Bee Tree road. It was the 24th anniversary of the club. Two of the charter members are still with the club, Mrs. T. J. Hunter and Mrs. E. N. Howell. Each member brought a birthday gift and these were exchanged by having the person with the highest score choose a gift first, the second high next, and so on until all gifts were chosen. Following lunch bridge was played. Members in attendance were Mrs. T. J. Hunter, Mrs. Roy Alexander, Mrs. William Berner, Mrs. Dixon Connelly, Mrs. Hubert Clapp, Mrs. J. W. Faucette, Mrs. Charles Porter, Mrs. Frank Vincent, Mrs. W. A. Ward, and Mrs. Clyde Glenn. Mrs. Ray Harrison and Mrs. H. D. Crawford were guests. High score was won by Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Harrison was low. Mrs. Frank Vincent received the bingo prize and Mrs. Clyde Glenn the floating.

Baptist Business Women Meet

The regular monthly meeting of the Business Women's circle of the Swannanoa Baptist church was held Monday night, June 11, at the home of Miss Dorothy Ingle with Mrs. Ruth Sands as co-hostess. Sixteen members and one visitor were present. Mrs. Essie Campfield, president, presided during the business period. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Jessie Allen. Mrs. Mary Freeman, program chairman, presented the program, "Stirrings in Middle America." The hostesses served delicious refreshments to the following during the social hour which followed: Mrs. Nell Matthews, Mrs. Viola Hughes, Mrs. Lillie Mae Miller, Mrs. Helen Caroll, Mrs. Vaughtie Simons, Mrs. Essie Campfield, Mrs. Gertrude Allen, Mrs. Roselle Noblett, Mrs. Lettie McMahan, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. Mary Freeman, Mrs. Frances McKinney, Mrs. McKinney, Mrs. Jessie Allen, Mrs. Annie McMahan, Mrs. Sands, and Miss Ingle.

H. R. Harrison Honored

On the first Sunday in June, Mr. H. R. Harrison was honored on his seventy-seventh birthday with a family picnic at Dripping Rock. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Harrison, Mrs. W. L. Moretz, Mrs. Earl McCall, Miss Virginia Harrison, Miss Ruth Casida, Miss Earlene McCall, Mrs. Dorothy Huggins, Frank Huggins, Miss Elizabeth Green, Mac Carson and son, Ronny, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCall and sons, Ray and Scotty of Americus, Ga., and Mrs. Doull Brougher from Gulfport, Miss.

Bible School Great Success

Bible School at the First Baptist church began on June 4 and lasted until June 15. We had a very successful school under the supervision of the Rev. C. W. Smith as the principal. There was a peak enrollment of 183. The beginner superintendent was Mrs. Paul Wagner. The workers were Mrs. Elsie Enloe, Mrs. Boyd Owenby, and Mrs. Alma McPhearson. The primary superintendent was Mrs. C. W. Smith, her helpers who were there every day were Mrs. Lois Melton, Mrs. Juanita Plemmons, Mrs. James Wagner, and Mrs. Smith. Those present to help the first week were Mrs. C. L. Wingo, Mrs. Frances McKinney and Miss Oberia Fox. Mrs. Kenny Simmons helped the last week. The superintendent of the junior department was Mrs. Norman Freeman. Her helpers were Mrs. Ruby Edmonds, Mrs. Jessie Allen, Mrs. Inez Haney, and Miss Joyce Stewart. The superintendent of the intermediate department was Mrs. Ethel Wood with Mrs. Walter Graig as helper. Other instructors and helpers that were present every day at the Bible school were Mrs. Paul Wagner, Mrs. McPhearson, Mrs. Mary Freeman, Mrs. Inez Haney, Mrs. Ruby Edmonds, Mrs. Ethel Woods, and Mrs. Walter Gragg. Rev. Smith and Mrs. Mabel Taylor were also in attendance every day. Mrs. Mabel Taylor served as our efficient secretary for the entire school. Mrs. Clem Hunt was the pianist for the group.

The school closed Friday with a picnic sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Society. Each one enjoyed it very much and we appreciate all that everyone did to help make it such a success. On Friday night the commencement exercises were held in the auditorium of the Baptist church and recognition was given to each one attending every day by presenting him or her with a small picture of the whole Bible school, given by Mr. Noah. We wish to thank each and every one for the donations of free materials and help, in any way during the school. We especially want to thank Mrs. Annie McMahan for the mimeograph work done; Mrs. Lawrence Wainscott for the materials donated for use in the primary department, and to all those who brought cardboard, spools, beads and anything that was of help to us. It might be said of them: "They had a mind to work"

As a result of this good work 17 out of the group of juniors and intermediates gave their hearts to the Lord. Two dedicated their lives to Christian service. A nursery was maintained every day for the workers who had small children. Mrs. Evelyn Mayfield and Mrs. Ray Robinson were in charge. Helpers included Miss Shirley Brown, Miss Joyce Steward and her visitor. We appreciate the beautiful flowers placed in the auditorium by Mrs. Elsie Enloe and Mrs. Bonita Stockton. Miss Sides, H. D. Franklin Wed Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sides of Swannanoa announce the marriage of their daughter, Utha Elmetta Sides, to Henry David Franklin, son of Mrs. Henry Franklin, also of Swannanoa. The wedding was performed Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Chloe Sue Thompson, sister-in-law of the bride. The bride, wearing a white summer suit with navy accessories, entered with the bridegroom. Her corsage was red rosebuds with baby's breath. The bride is a graduate of Swannanoa High school and attended Blanton's Business college. The bridegroom is a graduate of Biltmore High school and is now with the armed forces at Fort Jackson, S. C. A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. The house was decorated with spring flowers. Mrs. W. D. McDade and Mrs. H. —Turn to Page 6, this Sec.
